Important Information for Start-Up Farmers

Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412(63)(E) allows a start-up farmer to receive an exemption permit if:

- You intend to carry on agricultural production for at least two years;
- Your gross income from farming will be at least $2,500 in the second year or an average of $2,500 per year for both years; and
- Your gross expenses from farming will be at least $2,500 in the second year or an average of $2,500 per year for both years.

You must pay use tax on all purchases made using an exemption permit if you do not meet these conditions. See Informational Publication 2010(16), Farmer's Guide to Sales and Use Taxes, Motor Vehicle Fuels Tax, Estimated Income Tax, and Withholding Tax.

General Instructions

If you engage in agricultural production as a trade or business, use Form REG-8, Application for Farmer Tax Exemption Permit, to request a Farmer Tax Exemption Permit. The Farmer Tax Exemption Permit allows a farmer to purchase tangible personal property and motor vehicle fuels used exclusively in the agricultural production process without paying Connecticut sales and use taxes and motor vehicle fuels excise tax.

If you are applying as a start-up farmer, read the Important Information for Start-Up Farmers above.

A Farmer Tax Exemption Permit is valid for up to two years depending on the application date. An exemption permit issued October 1, 2014, or later, is valid until September 30, 2016.

The Department of Revenue Services (DRS) will issue a Farmer Tax Exemption Permit if you meet all three of the following conditions:

1. You are engaged in agricultural production as a trade or business. To be engaged in agricultural production as a trade or business, you must materially participate in the activity with a profit motive;
2. For federal income tax purposes, you reported gross income of $2,500 or more from agricultural production:
 - For the preceding taxable year; or
 - On average for the preceding two taxable years.

This gross income is generally reported on federal Form 4835, Schedule C (Form 1040), or Schedule F (Form 1040). An applicant must submit the same information as would be reported on Schedule F even though it is not required to file a Schedule F for federal income tax purposes. See instructions for Line 9 on Page 4; and

3. You must attach copies of the required pages of your federal income tax return and schedules. See the table on Page 4 for guidance on which year's return to submit with the application. Failure to attach the required documents may delay the processing of the application.

- Individuals must furnish signed copies of federal Form 1040, Pages 1 and 2, and the specified federal income tax return schedules, for example, Form 4835, Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). A husband and wife who file a joint federal income tax return can submit a joint Form REG-8. Both must enter and sign their names on the application.
- If you reported farm income on a federal Schedule C, you must complete Section 2, Detail of Farm Income Reported on Federal Schedule C (Form 1040), on Page 2 of this application.
- Fiduciaries of estates or trusts must furnish signed copies of federal Form 1041, Page 1 and any federal income tax return schedules that detail the income and expenses, for example, Form 4835, Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). If the fiduciaries submitted the pro forma Schedule C complete Section 2 on Page 2 of this application.
- Partnerships must furnish signed copies of federal Form 1065, Page 1 and the specified federal income tax return schedules that detail the income and expenses, for example, Form 4835, Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). If the partnerships submitted the pro forma Schedule C, complete Section 2 on Page 2 of this application.
- Corporations must furnish a signed copy of federal Form 1120 or 1120S, Page 1. In addition, a corporation must also submit the same information as would be reported on federal Form 4835, Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040), even though it is not required to file a Schedule C or Schedule F for federal income tax purposes. The items reported must correspond with what was reported on the corporation's Form 1120 or 1120S. If the corporations submitted the pro forma Schedule C, complete Section 2 on Page 2 of this application.

Line Instructions

If you are applying for a permit as a start-up farmer, answer only those questions that are applicable. Enter None if the question asks for information about a year when you were not engaged in agricultural production as a trade or business.

Line 1

Check Yes if you are engaged in one of the following as a trade or business:

- Raising and harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity;
- Dairy farming;
- Forestry. However, persons who purchase standing timber or who cut timber and resell the logs to a mill are not considered to be engaged in agricultural production;
- Raising livestock (including horses), bees, poultry, fur-bearing animals, or wildlife;
- Raising and harvesting fish, oysters, clams, mussels, or other molluscan shellfish; or
- Boarding horses.

Line 4 and Line 5

Describe in detail the farm products produced by you for sale. For example, a dairy farmer who owns milk cows should list milk as the product. A vegetable farmer should list the specific vegetable(s) grown for sale.

Products purchased by you for resale, for example, cut flowers and plants, are not agricultural products produced by you in agricultural production.

Line 9

The amount on Line 9b is generally the amount reported either on federal Form 1040, Schedule F, Line 2b or on federal Form 1040, Schedule C, Line 1. Persons filing Schedule F who are accrual basis taxpayers report the amount entered on Schedule F, Line 37b. If you are in the business of raising, feeding, caring for, training, or managing livestock including horses, you must enter the total gross income received from these activities. If your gross income was less than the $2,500 requirement and your income from agricultural production reported on your federal return for the last two years averaged $2,500, you may qualify for the exemption permit. Provide your gross income for each year only if you are using this method to qualify for the exemption permit.

Use the chart to the left to determine which income years you should list on Line 9. Fill in the appropriate year.

Start-Up Farmers: Enter "0" and do not submit federal returns.

Line 10

If the gross income entered on Line 9 was less than $2,500 and in the current or immediately preceding taxable year you purchased an agricultural trade or business from a seller who was issued a Farmer Tax Exemption Permit at the time of the purchase, enter the seller's name and Farmer Tax Exemption Permit number.

Sales and Use Tax Permit Required

A farmer selling goods must register for a Sales and Use Tax Permit and collect sales tax on the taxable sales. Taxable goods commonly sold by farmers include plants, certain seeds, hay, feed, mulch, fertilizer including manure, livestock, poultry, rabbits, living or cut Christmas trees, wreaths, decorated or carved pumpkins, and flowers.

Horse Farms

A farmer that reports income from a horse farm should indicate in Sections 2A and 2C on Page 2 whether the income is from:

- Boarding horses;
- Breeding horses;
- Selling horses;
- Commissions;
- Lessons or training;
- Pony or horse rides; or
- Other: Give full description.
