

BRS Public Meeting

The State Bureau of Rehabilitation Services (BRS) is hosting public meetings to provide you with information, answer questions, and seek your comments on exciting changes in Connecticut. We will:

- Review the following agency program goals to -
 1. Improve the quality of vocational rehabilitation services for individuals with disabilities;
 2. Increase employment outcomes for individuals with disabilities;
 3. Increase access to services for all individuals with disabilities; and
 4. Create effective partnerships designed to advance employment for Connecticut citizens with disabilities.
- Share details about the new Case Management System that will be a more efficient way to track consumer records.
- Share details about the new Employment Division, funded by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), whose goal is to more effectively respond to the employment needs of consumers and businesses in Connecticut.
