State DSS Offices Closed Today

Connecticut Department of Social Services offices are closed today – Friday, February 8 – as the state prepares for blizzard conditions.

DSS has 12 field offices across the state -- in Hartford, Manchester, New Britain, Willimantic, Waterbury, Torrington, Danbury, Stamford, Bridgeport, New Haven, Middletown and Norwich, as well as central administration in Hartford.

All offices are closed today, as DSS non-emergency personnel were advised to stay home and off the roads in advance of the blizzard.

DSS Commissioner Roderick Bremby also asks DSS clients to observe Governor Malloy's request that residents stay safely at home and off the roads.

The public may call 2-1-1, toll-free, for non-emergency information and referral.

Again, all state Department of Social Services offices are closed today due to impending blizzard conditions.
