Zweibel will conduct a weeklong workshop in Quinnipiac University's all-digital, high definition TV studio. You'll write, rehearse, shoot, and edit a professionally produced, original sitcom episode.

Live the process start to finish - brainstorm with colleagues; conduct table reads; cast, rehearse, shoot and edit the show all under the guidance of one of the industry's premier talents. Interested in writing, producing and acting in television comedy? Don't miss this exclusive opportunity!

All participants receive a finished copy of the show in DVD or BLU-RAY.

*An invaluable experience
for those interested in writing and producing television. Actors and

ZWEIBEL!
