

Intern needed for Indie Film Production Company- Local Quinnipiac Students Welcome.

Salisbury Films, seeks a self-motivated, college-age, passionate intern to work on festivals, distribution, and promotion of a finished feature film.

We're looking for a self-starter. A person who understands the importance of organization, and helping with day-to-day operations and assisting a small production company. Candidate should be self-motivated and take initiative to plan and execute projects.

Come to the table with executable ideas and you're a hero!

Work Description:

- Driving to Litchfield, 2-3 times weekly.
- Working from home to make calls and/or send emails to distributors, festivals, newspapers.
- Preparing and assembling documents and deliverables to distribution Company.
- helping in the writing and execution of press releases.
- Preparing for 2013 Film Festivals.
- Setting up events and screeners, from A-Z.
- Can come to film festivals as part of our crew.
- Help with the dissemination of postcards and fliers.

Qualifications:

- Passion and understanding of films and filmmaking.
- Ability to administer and manage a Twitter and Facebook Page
- Knowledge in Google Documents. (easy to learn)
- Event Planning
- Final Cut, editing, filmmaking experience a plus.
- Mac-based user, a plus.
- Can come to Litchfield CT home office, about 2 times per week 6 hours per day.
- Has their own transportation.
- Lives and goes to school locally so that internship can grow into something beyond a typical school year internship.

Compensation:

A small stipend will be offered to help pay for gas and other expenses. Extra pay for hard work and extra hours.

if you already have another job or are currently in school, we can discuss a flexible plan.

You may be working with other interns here as well, and can assure you we tend to have fun!

Start Date:

Right away.

Contact:

Salisbury Films

Paul@salisburyfilms.com

860-361-6062