SUBJECT MATTER OF REGULATION

(NEW) Section 8-68f-2 General Lease Provisions

Each Landlord that received or receives financial assistance under any state housing program shall enter into a written lease with each Tenant. The lease between the Landlord and each Tenant of a dwelling unit shall comply with Title 47a of the Connecticut General Statutes and contain the provisions described hereinafter. The lease shall state:

- (a) The names of the Landlord and Tenant;
- (b) The composition of the Family as approved by the Landlord (household members and any Landlord-approved live-in-aide);
- (c) That Tenant must promptly inform the Landlord of the birth, adoption or court-awarded custody of a child;
- (d) That Tenant must request Landlord's written approval to add any other person as a permitted occupant of the unit;
- (e) The unit rented (by address, apartment number, and any other information needed to identify the dwelling unit);
- (f) The term of the lease and provisions for renewal if any;
- (g) A statement of annual rent to be charged, including the monthly installment thereof, the amount of any security deposit, what utilities, services and equipment are to be supplied by the Landlord without additional cost, and what utilities and appliances are to be paid for by the Tenant; and
- (h) A statement of charges to the Tenant for maintenance and repair beyond normal wear and tear.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-3 Payments Due Under the Lease

- (a) The Tenant shall pay the rent in regular monthly installments as set forth in the lease, subject to adjustment in accordance with Department regulations and policies and other requirements. The amount of the Tenant rent is subject to change in accordance with Department regulations and policies. The Landlord must give a written receipt for cash payment of rent.
- (b) The lease shall specify the initial amount of the Tenant rent at the beginning of the initial lease term. The Landlord shall give the Tenant proper notice stating any change in the amount of Tenant rent and when the change is effective. Notice shall be given as set forth in accordance with Department regulations.
- (c) The lease may provide for charges to the Tenant for maintenance and repair beyond normal wear and tear and for consumption of excess utilities. The lease shall state the basis for the determination of such charges.
- (d) At the option of the Landlord, the lease may provide for payment of reasonable penalties for late payment.
- (e) The lease shall provide that charges assessed under paragraph (c) and (d) of this section shall not be due and collectible until two weeks after the Landlord gives written notice of the charges. Such notice constitutes a notice of adverse action, and must meet the requirements governing a notice of adverse action.
- (f) Such adverse action includes, but is not limited to: a proposed lease termination; transfer of the tenant to another unit; imposition of charges for maintenance and repair; or imposition of charges for excess consumption of utilities.
- (g) At the option of the Landlord, the Landlord may require the Tenant to pay a security deposit.
 - a. The amount of the security deposit, if any, shall not exceed the amounts permitted by section 47a-21 (b) of the general statutes.

- b. In accordance with section 47a-22a of the general statutes, any Landlord approved to provide housing for senior citizens and disabled persons under the provisions of part VI or VII or chapter 128 shall return any security deposit with interest at a rate of not less than four per cent per annum and, on and after October 1, 1982, at a rate of not less than five and one-quarter per cent per annum, to any Tenant who has resided in such housing for at least one year.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-4 Redetermination of Rent and Household Composition

The lease shall provide for redetermination of rent and household composition that shall include:

- (a) The frequency of regular rental redetermination and the basis for interim redetermination;
- (b) An agreement by the Tenant to furnish such information and certifications regarding household composition and income as may be necessary for the Landlord to make determinations with respect to rent, eligibility, and the appropriateness of dwelling size;
- (c) An agreement by the Tenant to transfer to an appropriate size dwelling unit based on household composition, upon appropriate notice by the Landlord that such a dwelling unit is available; and
- (d) When the Landlord redetermines the amount of rent payable by the Tenant, not including determination of the Landlord's schedule of utility allowances, or determines that the Tenant must transfer to another unit based on household composition, the Landlord shall notify the Tenant in writing of the basis for the Landlord determination, and indicate that if the Tenant does not agree with the determination, the Tenant shall have the right to request a Hearing under the Landlord grievance procedure.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-5 Tenant's Right To Use and Occupancy

- (a) The lease shall provide that the Tenant shall have the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the leased unit by the members of the household authorized to reside in the unit as listed in the lease, including reasonable accommodation of their guests in compliance with the Landlord's guest policy, if any. The term guest means a person temporarily staying in the leased unit with the consent of a Tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to consent on behalf of the Tenant and does not mean a Tenant as that term is defined in section 47a-1(l) of the Connecticut General Statutes.
- (b) With the consent of the Landlord, a foster child or a live-in aide may reside in the unit. The Landlord may adopt reasonable policies concerning residence by a foster child or a live-in aide, and shall detail the circumstances under which Landlord consent will be given or denied. Under such policies, factors to be considered by the Landlord may include, but are not necessarily limited to:
 - (1) Whether the addition of a new occupant may necessitate a transfer of the Tenant household to another unit, and whether such units are available.
 - (2) The Landlord's obligation to make reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-6 Landlord's Obligations

The lease shall set forth the Landlord's obligations under the lease and shall include the following:

- (a) To maintain the dwelling unit and the premises in decent, safe and sanitary condition;
- (b) To comply with requirements of applicable building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety;
- (c) To make necessary repairs to the dwelling unit;

- (e) To maintain in good and safe working order and condition electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, and other facilities and appliances, including elevators, supplied or required to be supplied by the Landlord;
- (f) To provide, maintain and arrange for the removal of appropriate receptacles and facilities (except for indoor containers for the exclusive use of an individual Tenant household) for the deposit of ashes, garbage, rubbish and other waste removed from the dwelling unit by the Tenant in accordance with section 8-68f-7(g) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;
- (g) To supply running water and reasonable amounts of hot water at all times and reasonable amounts of heat in compliance with section 19a-109 of the Connecticut General Statutes, except where the building that includes the dwelling unit is not required by law to be equipped for that purpose, or where heat or hot water is generated by an installation within the exclusive control of the Tenant and supplied by a direct utility connection;
- (h) To provide the Tenant with a written receipt for cash payment of rent, if cash payments are received by Landlord;
- (i) To provide written notice to the Tenant of the specific grounds for any proposed adverse action by the Landlord.
 - (i) Such adverse action shall include, but is not limited to, a proposed lease termination, the transfer of the Tenant to another unit, the imposition of any charges or assessments as set forth in section 8-68f-3 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, or the imposition of charges for maintenance and repair, or for excess consumption of utilities.
- (j) When the Landlord is required to afford the Tenant an opportunity for a Hearing under the Landlord grievance procedure for a Grievance concerning a proposed adverse action:
 - (i) The notice of proposed adverse action shall inform the Tenant of the right to request a Hearing. In the case of a proposed lease termination, a notice of lease termination provided in accordance with section 8-68f-11 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies shall constitute adequate notice of proposed adverse action.
 - (ii) In the case of a proposed adverse action other than a proposed lease termination, the Landlord shall not take the proposed adverse action until the time for the Tenant to request a grievance hearing has expired, and (if a Hearing was timely requested by the Tenant) the grievance process has been completed.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-7 Tenant's Obligations

The lease shall provide that the Tenant shall be obligated:

- (a) Not to assign the lease or to sublease the dwelling unit;
- (b) Not to provide accommodations for boarders or lodgers;
- (c) To use the dwelling unit solely as a primary residence for the Tenant and the Tenant's household as identified in the lease, and not to use or permit its use for any other purpose. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent permitted by applicable law and with the prior written consent of the Landlord, members of the household may engage in legal profitmaking activities in the dwelling unit where the Landlord has determined that such activities are incidental to the primary use of the leased unit for residence by members of the household;
- (d) To abide by necessary and reasonable rules and regulations promulgated by the Landlord from time to time pursuant to section 47a-9 of the Connecticut General Statutes for the benefit and well-being of the premises and its Tenants, which rules and regulations shall be posted in the premises office and incorporated by reference in the lease;

- (g) To dispose of all ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the dwelling unit in a sanitary and safe manner;
- (h) To use only in a reasonable manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning and other facilities and appurtenances including elevators;
- (i) To refrain from, and to cause household members and guests to refrain from willfully or negligently destroying, defacing, damaging, or removing any part of the dwelling unit or the premises;
- (j) To pay reasonable charges for the repair of damages (other than for wear and tear) to the dwelling unit, or to the premises (including damages to buildings, facilities or common areas) negligently or willfully caused by the Tenant, a member of Tenant's household or a guest;
- (k) To act, and cause household members and guests to act, in a manner which will not disturb other Tenants' peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations and will be conducive to maintaining the premises in a decent, safe and sanitary condition;
- (l) To make reasonable efforts to assure that no Tenant, any member of the household, or a guest, engages in:
 - (i) Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other Tenants or employees of the Landlord, or
 - (ii) Any drug-related criminal activity on, off, or near such premises. Any criminal activity in violation of the preceding sentence shall be cause for termination of tenancy, and for eviction from the dwelling unit. The term drug-related criminal activity means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use, of a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 USC 802)).
- (m) To make reasonable efforts to assure that no other person under the Tenant's control engages in:

 - (ii) Any drug-related criminal activity on the premises, or
 - (iii) An abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol that affects the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other Tenants.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-8 Hazards to Life, Health or Safety

In the event that the premises are damaged or conditions are created which are hazardous to life, health, or safety of the occupants, the lease shall provide that:

- (a) The Tenant shall immediately notify the Landlord of the damage;
- (b) The Landlord shall make repairs to the unit within a reasonable period of time. If the damage was willfully or negligently caused by the Tenant, a member of Tenant's household or guests, or another person under the Tenant's control, the reasonable cost of the repairs may be charged to the Tenant;
- (c) The Landlord shall offer adequate replacement housing, if available, in circumstances where necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable period of time;
- (d) The Landlord shall provide for the abatement of rent in proportion to the seriousness of the damage and loss in value as a dwelling for periods in which repairs are not made or alternative accommodations not provided in accordance with either subsection (b) or subsection (c) of this section, except that no abatement of rent shall occur if the Tenant unreasonably rejects the replacement housing or if the damage was negligently or willfully caused by the Tenant, a member of Tenant's household or guests, or another person under the Tenant's control; and

- (e) The Tenant's remedies for lack of adequate performance by the Landlord shall be in accordance with applicable law, including, without limitation, section 47a-14 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-9 Pre-occupancy and Pre-termination Inspections

The lease shall provide that the Landlord and the Tenant, or their respective representative(s) shall inspect the dwelling unit prior to commencement of occupancy. The Landlord will furnish the Tenant with a written statement of the condition of the dwelling unit, the appliances and the equipment provided within the dwelling unit. The Landlord and the Tenant shall sign the statement, and the Landlord shall retain a copy of the statement in the Tenant's file. The Landlord shall inspect the unit at the time the Tenant vacates to determine any damage charges in accordance with subsection (b) of section 8-68f-8 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies. Tenant shall be afforded the opportunity to be present at the inspection, unless the Tenant vacates without notice to the Landlord.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-10 Entry of Dwelling Unit during Tenancy

The lease shall set forth the circumstances under which the Landlord may enter the dwelling unit during the Tenant's possession thereof, which shall include provision that:

- (a) A Tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the Landlord to enter the dwelling unit for the purpose of performing routine inspections and maintenance, for making improvement or repairs, or to show the dwelling unit for re-leasing or to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgages, workmen or contractors. Absent special circumstances, and otherwise agreed, a written statement specifying the purpose of the Landlord entry delivered to the dwelling unit at least forty-eight hours before such entry shall be considered reasonable advance notification;
- (b) A Landlord may enter the dwelling unit without the consent of the Tenant only when (i) there is reasonable cause to believe that an emergency exists, (ii) it is permitted in Section 8-68f-10 (f) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, (iii) it is pursuant to a court order, or (iv) a Tenant has abandoned or surrendered the dwelling unit.
- (c) The Landlord may enter the dwelling unit without advance notification only when (i) there is reasonable cause to believe that an emergency exists, or (ii) if the Tenant has abandoned or surrendered the dwelling unit;
- (d) If the Tenant and all adult members of the household are absent from the dwelling unit at the time of entry permitted by this section, the Landlord shall leave in the dwelling unit a written statement specifying the date, time and purpose of entry prior to leaving the dwelling unit.
- (e) A Landlord shall not abuse the right of entry or use such right of entry to harass the Tenant. The Landlord shall give the Tenant reasonable written or oral notice of his intent to enter and may enter only at reasonable times, except in case of emergency.
- (f) The Tenant shall be required to notify the Landlord of any anticipated extended absence from the premises and the Landlord thereupon may enter the dwelling unit at reasonable times during such prolonged absence to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed to repairs, alterations, or improvements, supply necessary or agreed to services or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, Tenants, workmen or contractors.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-11 Notice Procedures

The lease shall provide procedures to be followed by the Landlord and Tenants in giving notice to each other, which shall require that:

- (a) Except as provided in section 8-68f-10 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, notice to the Tenant shall be in writing and delivered to the Tenant's dwelling unit or sent by prepaid first-class mail, properly addressed to the Tenant. If the Tenant is visually impaired, all notices must be in an accessible format; and
- (b) Except as otherwise provided in the lease, Tenant shall provide notice to the Landlord in writing and deliver it to the premises office or the Landlord's central office or send it by prepaid first-class mail, properly addressed.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-12 Termination of the Lease

The lease shall indicate the procedures to be followed by the Landlord and the Tenant in terminating the lease, including:

- (a) That the Landlord shall not terminate or refuse to renew the lease other than:
 - (i) For serious or repeated violation of material terms of the lease, such as the following:
 - a. Failure to make payments for rent and other charges due under the lease; or
 - b. Failure to fulfill Tenant's obligations, as described in section 8-68f-7 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.
 - (ii) Being over an income limit for the applicable housing program.
 - (iii) For other good cause, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
 - a. Failure to accept the Landlord's offer of a lease within the time period specified in the lease;
 - b. Failure to comply with Landlord's rules and regulations promulgated in accordance with section 47a-9 of the Connecticut General Statutes and Section 8-68f-11 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;
 - c. Criminal activity as provided in section 8-68f-12(b)(iii) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;
 - d. Discovery after admission of facts that made the Tenant ineligible;
 - e. Discovery of material false statement or fraud by the Tenant in connection with an application for assistance with housing or with reexamination of income.
- (b) That the Landlord shall give written notice of the termination of the lease of not less than fourteen (14) days in the case of failure to pay rent. In other cases, considering the seriousness of the situation, a reasonable period of time shall be provided, but not to exceed thirty (30) days in any of the following:
 - (i) If the health or safety of other Tenants, Landlord's employees, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the dwelling unit or premises is threatened; or
 - (ii) If any member of the household has engaged in any drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity; or
 - (iii) If any member of the household has been convicted of a felony that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the dwelling unit or premises by other Tenants or threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of their residences by persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
- (c) That the termination notice shall state the reasons for the termination, shall inform the Tenant of Tenant's right to examine the Landlord's documents directly relevant to the termination and to make such reply as the Tenant may wish, and of Tenant's right to request an informal settlement in accordance with the Landlord's grievance procedure;

- (e) A notice to quit, required by section 47a-23 of the Connecticut General Statutes, may only be combined with, or run concurrently with, a notice of lease termination under this section consistent with the standards under section 47a-23(e) of the general statutes.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-13 Provision for Modifications

The lease shall provide that any modification thereto shall be mutually agreed upon, in writing, and incorporated into the original lease. Nothing in the lease, however, shall preclude a waiver of the writing requirement by mutual agreement or by course of conduct.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-14 Posting of Policies, Rules and Regulations

- (a) Schedules of special charges for services, repairs and utilities and rules and regulations that shall be incorporated into the lease by reference shall be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the premises office and/or other place(s) or other central locations within the development. Copies of these documents must be provided to Tenants and shall be furnished to applicants upon request. Such schedules, rules and regulations may be modified from time to time by the Landlord provided that the Landlord shall give at least 30 calendar days written notice to each affected Tenant setting forth the proposed modification, the reasons therefore, and providing the Tenants with an opportunity to present written comments. A copy of such notice shall be:
- (i) Delivered directly or mailed to each Tenant; and
 - (ii) Posted in at least three (3) conspicuous places within each structure or building in which the affected dwelling units are located, as well as in a conspicuous place at the premises' office, if any, or posted in a similar central business location within the premises.
- (b) Prior to the proposed modification becoming effective, the Landlord shall be required to summarize all comments received and provide a response for each summarized comment addressing why the comment was or was not incorporated. Such summary and response shall be provided to each Tenant affected.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-17 Grievance Procedure

The lease shall provide that all disputes concerning the obligations of the Tenant or the Landlord shall be resolved in accordance with the Landlord's grievance procedures. The Landlord's grievance procedure shall not be applicable to disputes between Tenants not involving the Landlord or to class Grievances. The grievance procedure is not intended as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes between a group or groups of Tenants and Landlord.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-18 Informal Settlement of Grievances

- (a) Any Grievance shall be personally presented, either orally or in writing, to the Landlord's office or to the office at the premises in which the complainant resides so that the Grievance may be discussed informally and settled without a Hearing.
- (b) A summary of such discussion shall be prepared within a reasonable period of time and one copy shall be given to the Tenant and one retained in the Landlord's Tenant file. The summary shall specify the names of the participants, dates of meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the Complaint and the specific reasons therefore, and shall specify the procedures by which a Hearing under section 8-68f-20 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies may be obtained if the complainant is not satisfied.
- (c) Informal settlement of Grievances should be encouraged, and every effort should be made to minimize administrative costs associated with an informal settlement. To that extent, actions which result in undue financial burden on the Tenant or the Landlord are discouraged.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-19 Right To a Hearing

- (ii) In the event the Landlord and Tenant cannot agree on a Hearing Officer appointed in subsection (i) above, a panel of three persons shall be appointed as follows: one selected by the Landlord, one selected by the Tenant; and one selected by the other two members.
- (c) Failure to request a Hearing. If the complainant does not request a Hearing in accordance with this paragraph, then the Landlord's disposition of the Grievance under section 8-68f-19 shall become final: provided, that failure to request a Hearing shall not constitute a waiver by the complainant of his right thereafter to contest the Landlord's action in disposing of the Complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.
- (d) Hearing prerequisite. All Grievances shall be personally presented either orally or in writing pursuant to the informal settlement procedure prescribed in Section 8-68f-19 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies as a condition precedent to a Hearing under this section: provided, that if the complainant shall show good cause for failure to proceed in accordance with section 8-68f-19 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel, the provisions of this subsection may be waived by the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel.
- (e) Scheduling of Hearings. Upon complainant's compliance with paragraphs (a), (d) and (e) of this section, a Hearing shall be promptly scheduled by the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel for a time and place reasonably convenient to both the complainant and the Landlord. A written notification specifying the time, place and the procedures governing the Hearing shall be delivered to the complainant and the appropriate Landlord official.
- (f) Expedited grievance procedure. The Landlord may establish an expedited grievance procedure for any Grievance concerning a termination of tenancy that involves:
- (i) Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other Tenants or employees of the Landlord, or
- (ii) Any drug-related criminal activity on or near such premises.
- (g) In the case of a Grievance under the expedited grievance procedure permitted by paragraph (g) of this section, section 8-68f-19 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies is not applicable.
- (h) Subject to the requirements of this section, the Landlord may adopt special procedures concerning a Hearing under the expedited grievance procedure, including provisions for expedited notice or scheduling, or provisions for expedited decision on the Grievance.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-21 Procedures Governing the Hearing

- (a) The complainant shall be afforded a fair Hearing that shall include:
- (i) A reasonable opportunity prior to the Hearing to examine any documents, records, or regulations directly relevant to the Hearing. The complainant shall be allowed to copy any such document at the complainant's expense. At the Hearing, the Landlord may not discuss any document not made available after a request by the complainant;
- (ii) The right to be represented by counsel or other person chosen as his/her representative;
- (iii) The right to a private Hearing unless the complainant requests a public Hearing;
- (iv) The right to present evidence and arguments in support of the Complaint, to contest evidence presented by the Landlord, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the Landlord relies; and
- (v) A decision based solely and exclusively upon the facts, documents, records and/or regulations presented at the Hearing.

- (b) If the complainant or the Landlord fails to appear at a scheduled Hearing, the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel may make a determination to postpone the Hearing for a period not to exceed five (5) business days or may make a determination that the complainant or Landlord has waived his/her/its right to a Hearing. Both the complainant and the Landlord shall be notified of the determination. If a determination has been made that the complainant or Landlord has waived his/her/its right to a Hearing, it shall not constitute a waiver of complainant's right to contest the Landlord's disposition of the Grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.
- (c) At the Hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought and thereafter the Landlord must sustain the burden of justifying the Landlord action or failure to act against which the Complaint is directed.
- (d) The Hearing shall be conducted informally and oral or documentary evidence pertinent to the facts and issues raised by the complainant may be received without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings. The Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel shall require the Landlord, the complainant, counsel and other participants or spectators to conduct themselves in an orderly fashion. Failure to comply with the directions of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel to obtain order may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.
- (e) The complainant or the Landlord may arrange, in advance and at the expense of the party making the request, for a transcript of the Hearing. Any interested party may purchase a copy of such transcript.
- (f) Accommodation of persons with disabilities. The Landlord must provide reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities to participate in the Hearing. Reasonable accommodation may include qualified sign language interpreters, readers, accessible locations, or attendants. If the Tenant is visually impaired, any notice to the Tenant that is required must be in an accessible format.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-22 Decision of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel

- (a) The Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel shall prepare a written decision, together with the reasons for the decision within a reasonable period of time after the Hearing. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the complainant and the Landlord. The Landlord shall retain a copy of the decision in the Tenant's file. A copy of such decision, with all names and identifying references deleted, shall also be maintained on file by the Landlord and made available for inspection by a prospective complainant, his representative, or the Hearing Panel or Hearing Officer.
- (b) The decision of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel shall be binding on the Landlord, which shall take all actions, or refrain from any actions, necessary to carry out the decision unless the Landlord determines within a reasonable period of time, and promptly notifies the complainant of its determination, that:
 - (i) The Grievance does not concern Landlord action or failure to act in accordance with or involving the complainant's lease or Landlord rules/regulations, which adversely affect the complainant's rights, duties, welfare or status; or
 - (ii) The decision of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel is contrary to applicable federal, state or local law, Department policy, or state regulations and/or contractual requirements between the Department and the Landlord.
- (c) A decision by the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel in favor of the Landlord or which denies the relief requested by the complainant in whole or in part shall not constitute a waiver of, nor affect in any manner whatever, any rights the complainant may have to a trial or judicial review in any judicial proceedings, which may thereafter be brought in the matter.

(NEW) Section 8-68f-23 Facilitation Of Tenant Participation In The Operation Of Housing Owned Or Operated By A Landlord Which Receives Financial Assistance Under Any State Housing Program

- (a) Each Landlord shall make a good faith effort to encourage the participation of Tenants in the Landlord's operation of state housing programs and, where appropriate, facilitate Tenant participation in the management of its housing projects.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE: To implement the provisions of 8-68f of the Connecticut General Statutes, which requires the Commissioner to establish, for housing owned or operated by a Landlord which receives financial assistance under any state housing program, uniform minimum standards to: (1) provide each of its Tenants with a written lease, (2) adopt a procedure for hearing Tenant complaints and Grievances, (3) adopt procedures for soliciting Tenant comment on proposed changes in Landlord policies and procedures, including changes to its lease and to its admission and occupancy policies, and (4) encourage Tenant participation in the Landlord's operation of state housing programs, including, where appropriate, the facilitation of Tenant participation in the management of housing projects. If such Landlord operates both a federal and state assisted housing program, it shall use the same procedure for hearing Tenant Grievances in both programs.
