

Join the Education and Outreach Working Group in a “Peoples Choice Vote”
for best GIS poster on display in the LOB Concourse Voting from 10:00 to 3:30

Winner will be posted on the CT Geospatial Council Website <http://www.ct.gov/gis>
All posters submitted will be on display at the LOB for the month of November.

Table Displays,
Thematic Map Contest
for School Students

Connecticut Geospatial Information Systems Council presents

GIS Day 2009

Geographic Information Systems

Wednesday November 18, 2009

At the Legislative Office Building
Capitol Ave. Hartford, CT 06105
10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Visitor Parking available in the LOB garage

Connecticut's
GIS Map
Gallery
on display

EVENT SCHEDULE

- 10:00 Jane Cullinane, CT State Library, The History of Connecticut Aerial Photography
- 10:30 Peter Kyem, CCSU, Web-Based GIS & The Future of Public Participatory GIS Applications
- 11:00 Megan McGaffin, Town of Milford, GIS & The Milford Sewer System Project
- 11:30 Carl Nysten, ESRI, Connecticut GIS: State of the State
- 12:00 - 1:00 BREAK
- 1:00 Steve Anderson, Applied Geographics, Connecticut's G.E.M.S. Project
- 1:30 Jesse Wanzer, Trinity College, Helping Hartford Area Families Make Smart Choices: A Digital Guide to Public School Choice
- 2:00 Jason Parent, CLEAR, Storm Water Management: Direct Nonpoint Source Pollution Mitigation Efforts in the Eagleville Brook Watershed
- 2:30 - 3:30 The CT Geospatial Council Meeting - Public Welcome
2009 Connecticut Geography Bee Winner to Receive Certificate from Council