Hartford, CT

REGISTER NOW!

This training will cover the law and rules of practice in juvenile delinquency matters including

- Interrogation and Admissibility of Statements
- Detention Hearings
- Role of Counsel
- Confidentiality – Limitations and Ways to protect your client
- Pretrial and probation programs

October 14 is scheduled to be a judge's training day, so dockets should be light!

- The morning session will cover the law and rules of practice in juvenile delinquency matters.
- The afternoon session will present the National Juvenile Defender Center's Juvenile Training Intensive Protocol (JTIP) module on transfer hearings and will address recent legislative changes.

You may register for the whole program or for half the day. Please indicate which session you will attend if registering for only one session.
