

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH
ATTORNEY ANNE LOUISE BLANCHARD

Anne Louise Blanchard is the Litigation Director of Connecticut Legal Services and has represented children and families in DCF matters for more than 20 years. Her practice includes administrative hearings and state and federal appellate cases. She has been lead or co-counsel in three class action suits involving education and mental health services provided to children in DCF's care as well as a class action regarding Medicaid dental care for children. Anne Louise was a member of Connecticut's legislative committee studying open juvenile courts, is a past co-chair of the Federal Practice Section, and is appointed by Connecticut's senators to their Federal Advisory Council, which screens and recommends candidates for federal judges and the U.S. attorney position in Connecticut.