

Here's how Nurturing Families Network home visiting program can help:

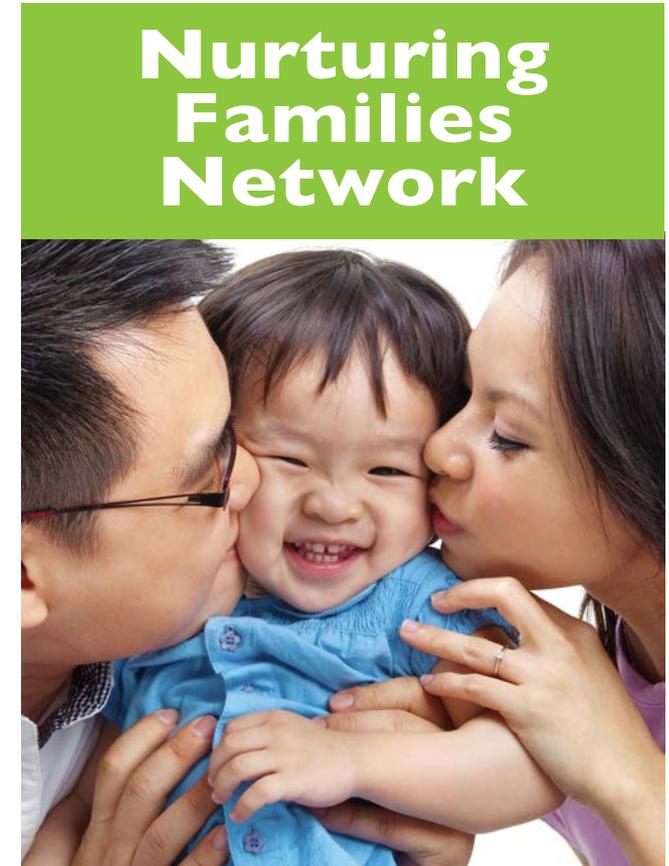

- Prenatal guidance.
- Baby care and safety tips.
- Developmental milestones.
- Community resources for you and your baby.

Nurturing Families Network gives new and
expecting parents help,
support and information.
And it's FREE!

To learn more about
Nurturing Families Network:

Call Child Development Infoline at 1-800-505-7000
or visit our website at www.ct.gov/oec/nfn

Babies bring much joy... And responsibility

Nurturing Families Network can help you from pregnancy through your baby's early years.

The Nurturing Families Network program offers free and voluntary services to new parents:

- Home visiting – A caring family support provider will come to your home and give you the information and support you need.
- On the phone – Get help over the phone during the early months of your baby's life.
- Parenting groups – Learn parenting skills while working with other parents.

Here's what people have to say about home visiting:

“I've helped new parents find housing, jobs or even cribs for their newborns.”
– Home Visitor

“I could ask [the home visitor] anything and she gave me information on child development, sleeping habits, potty training, discipline and available community resources.” – Parent

“Fathers are an important part of the family equation and we're helping more and more...” – Fathering Home Visitor

“[The home visitor] took a lot of fear away and made me a better mother.”
– Parent