Know Your Rights as the Parent of a Student with a Disability

With Attorney Andrew A. Feinstein & Attorney Melanie Dunn

Andrew A. Feinstein has represented children with disabilities and their families pursuing appropriate educational programs for the past fifteen years. He is co-chair of the Government Relations Committee for the Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates (COPAA) and an adjunct professor of special education law at Central Connecticut State University.

Melanie Dunn is an attorney with experience in a number of areas in the practice of education law. Melanie is a member of the growing community of parent attorneys and advocates who are working toward increasing parent engagement in the PPT process and for the protection of the rights of parents under IDEA.

Willington Public Library, 7 Ruby Road, Willington

Lunch will be served!
