I. COVERAGE REDUCTION OPTIONS

Due to regulations that went into effect in April of 2015, CT Partnership policyholders who experience a cumulative lifetime increase in premiums of 50% or greater have more options to reduce their coverage and not have their policy lose its Partnership status.

Affected policyholders are able to reduce their daily benefit amount to any level, even if it’s below the Partnership minimums for that year, and still retain their Partnership policy.

In addition, affected policyholders can reduce their inflation protection level below the Partnership minimum of 3.5% compound as long as some amount of automatic inflation protection remains in the policy (guaranteed and future purchase options are not allowed). The level of inflation protection that affected policyholders will be able to reduce to will depend on the inflation protection options available from their insurer for the insurer’s non-Partnership policies available when the Partnership policy was originally purchased. To find out what inflation protection options are available for a particular insurer and policy form email david.guttchen@ct.gov or contact the insurer directly.

Partnership policyholders who have not experienced a 50% or greater cumulative lifetime increase in premiums also have coverage reduction options but their benefits must be at or above the Partnership minimums for that year in order for their policy to retain its Partnership status.
All Partnership policies include a “Shorter Coverage Reduction” provision which allows the policyholder to reduce their lifetime benefit, regardless of whether they have had their rates increased. Insurers must always have an option in their Partnership policies for the insured to lower their lifetime benefit amount even if that benefit amount is below the minimum lifetime benefit level the insured makes available for new policy sales. For instance, if an insurer’s minimum Partnership policy is a two year plan then the insurer must have rates on file for a one year policy so the insured can reduce their coverage if they so choose. The only exception is if the Partnership policy has a one year benefit period and then the insurer has the option of not including a Shorter Reduction Coverage option. Insureds can also reduce their daily benefit amounts as long as they are at or above the Partnership minimums.

II. MEDICAID ASSET PROTECTION EXPANDS THE LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE MARKET

One of the biggest advantages of the Partnership’s Medicaid Asset Protection feature is that it can expand your market for suitable long-term care insurance candidates, helping make the purchase of long-term care insurance more of a reality for the middle class. Medicaid Asset Protection allows consumers to purchase an amount of insurance based on the amount of assets they wish to protect. For those with more moderate amounts of assets, the Partnership can make the purchase of long-term care insurance more affordable since they can tailor their purchase to their level of wealth.
With a non-Partnership policy, consumers take some level of risk if they purchase anything less than lifetime or unlimited benefits since they will still be exposed to spending down their assets if they outlive their insurance benefits. Medicaid Asset Protection makes the purchase of shorter term coverage (i.e., 1, 2 or 3 years of coverage) a more suitable and feasible purchase based on someone’s assets and the amount of income they can spend on the policy.

IV. MINIMUM DAILY BENEFIT LEVELS FOR 2018

For Partnership policies applied for in 2018, the minimum daily benefit levels will be $274.00 for nursing home care and $137.00 for home care.

The 2018 minimum levels represent a 3.5% increase from 2017.

In addition, please be aware that the annual allowable minimums also pertain to existing policyholders who wish to reduce their daily benefits. In cases such as this, the daily benefit cannot be reduced below the Partnership allowable minimum benefit level for that year unless the policyholder has had a cumulative lifetime increase in their premiums of 50% or greater.

If you have any questions on the Partnership’s minimum daily benefit levels, please email David Gutchen at david.gutchen@ct.gov or call 860-418-6318.
