

What is it Like to Go Home?

The Money Follows the Person

Quality of Life Dashboard

Julie Robison, Martha Porter, Irene Reed,
Noreen Shugrue & Dawn Lambert

December 6, 2011

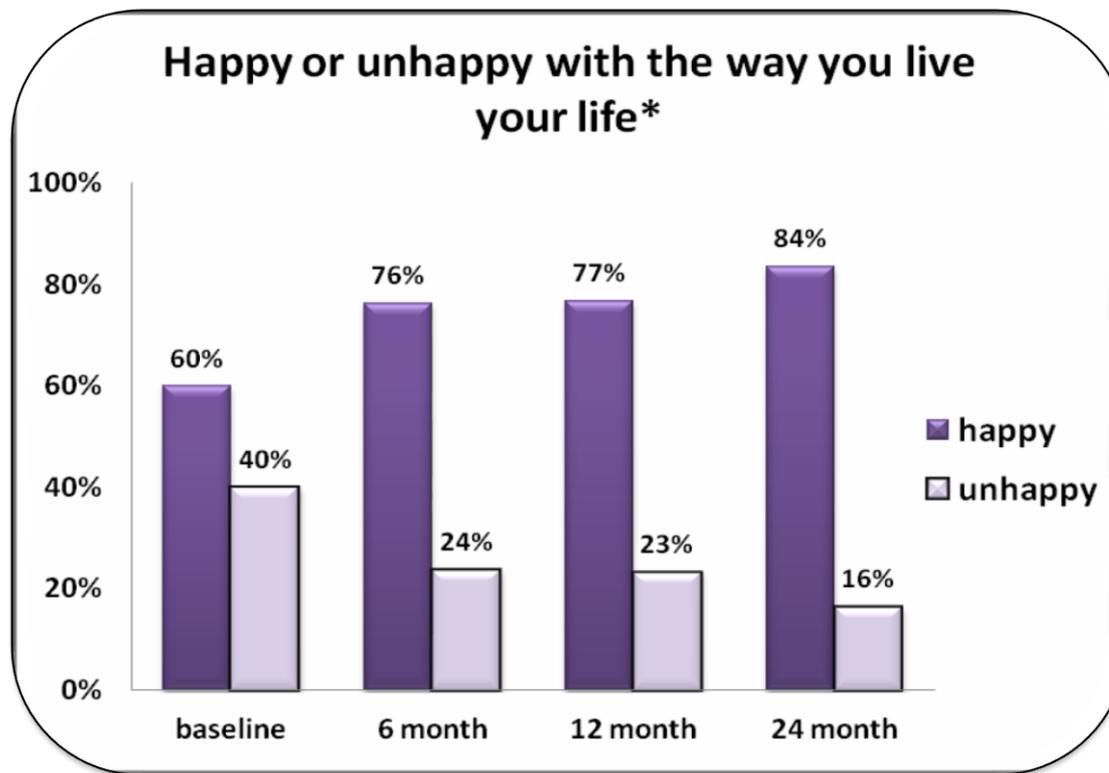

Connecticut Long-Term Care Planning Committee
Hartford, CT

Evaluation of Benchmark 1

- Quality of Life survey: Nat'l + CT supplement
 - Baseline (before transition), 6, 12, 24 months
 - Global satisfaction, satis. w/ care & living arrangements
 - Respect and dignity
 - Community integration
 - Unmet care needs
 - Choice and control
 - Assistive technology
 - ADL/IADL function

QoL Survey “Dashboard”

- 15 key items or scales
- Reported to MFP program quarterly
- Compares baseline to each follow up time

*significant change over time

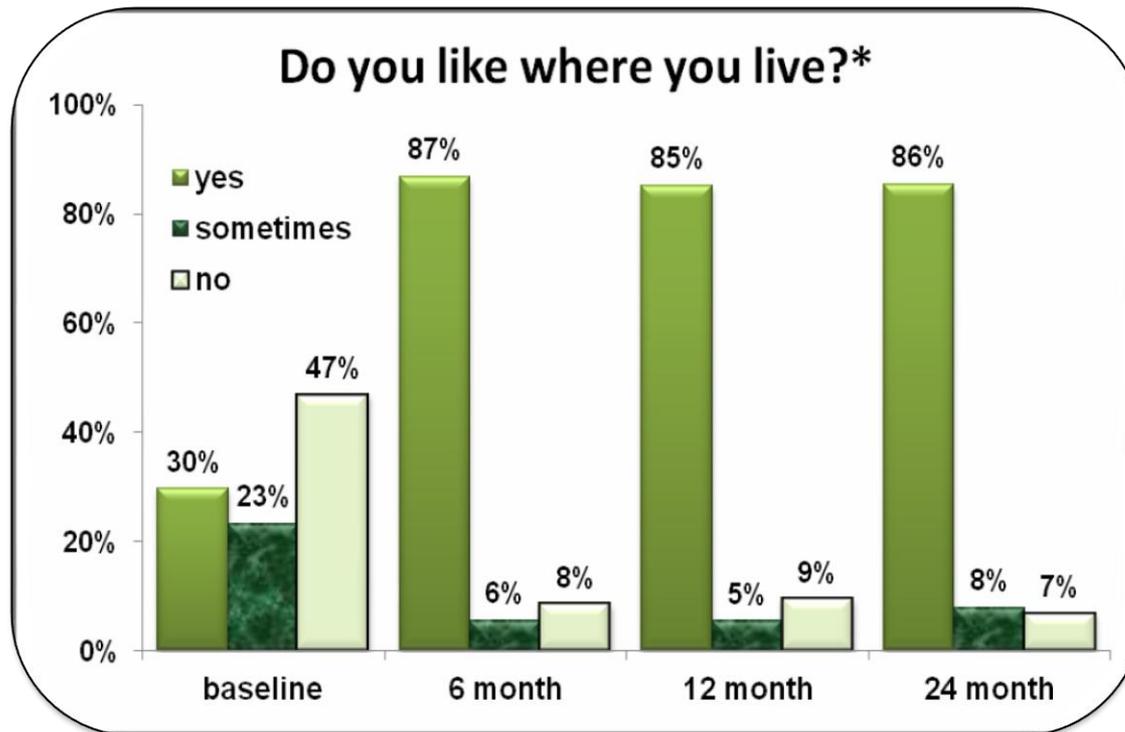

QoL Dashboard: 9/30/11

757 baseline interviews – before transition

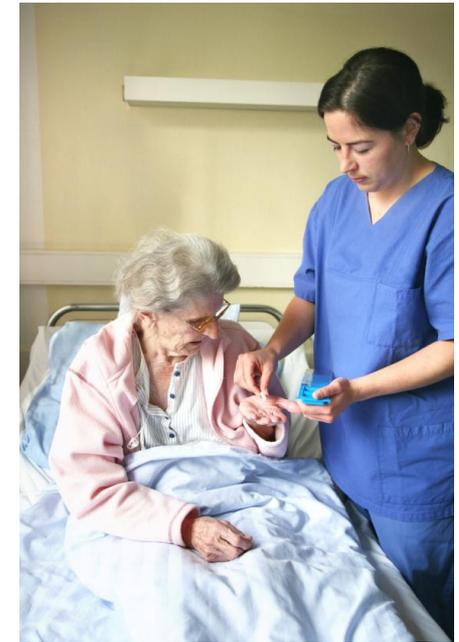

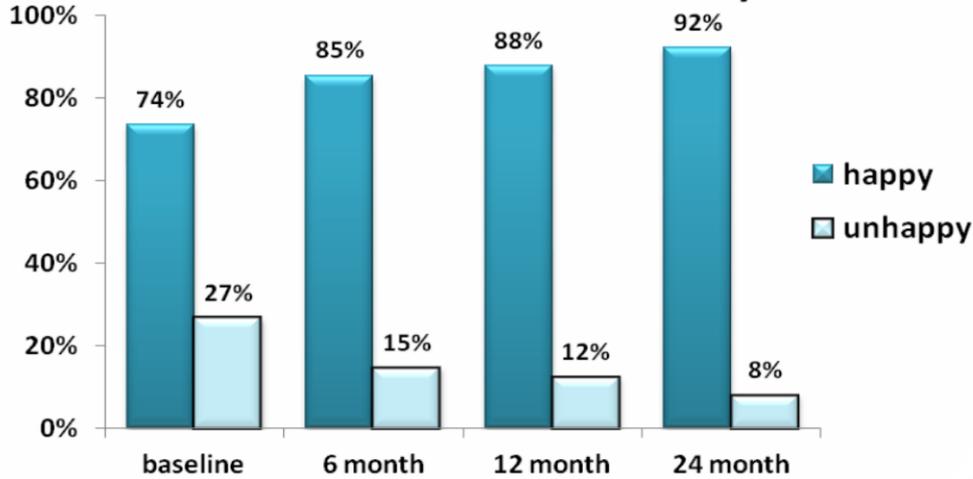

479 6-month interviews – 6 months after transition

337 12-month interviews

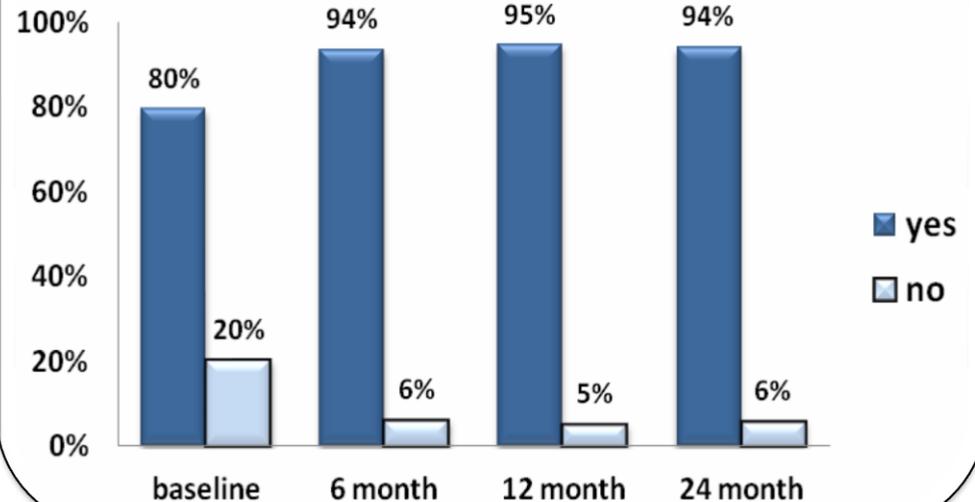

76 24-month interviews

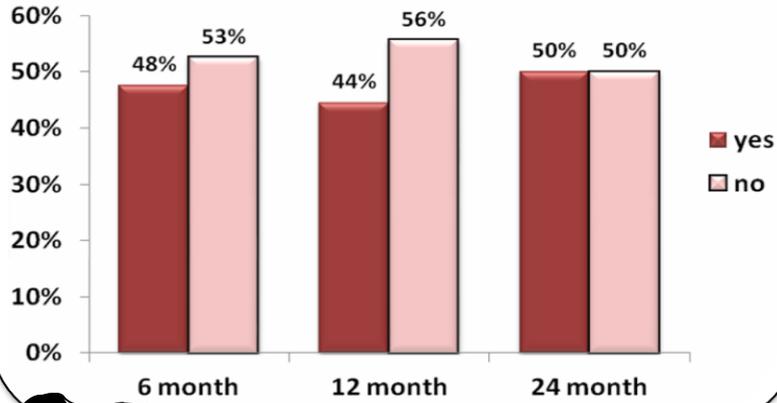

Happy or unhappy with your help around the house or in the community*

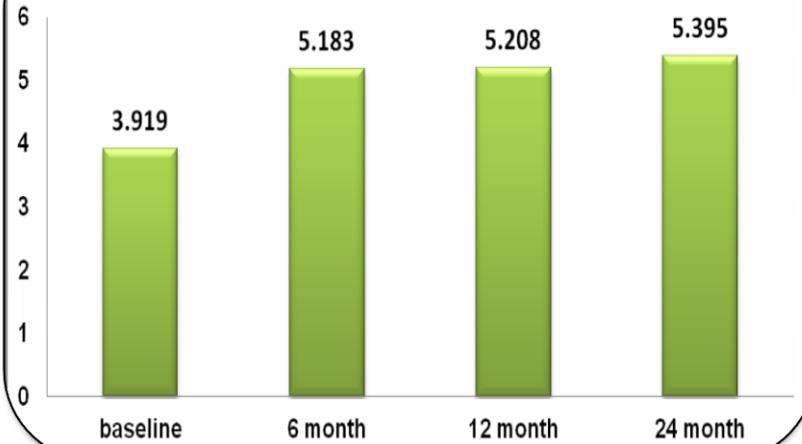

Do the people who help you treat you the way you want them to?*

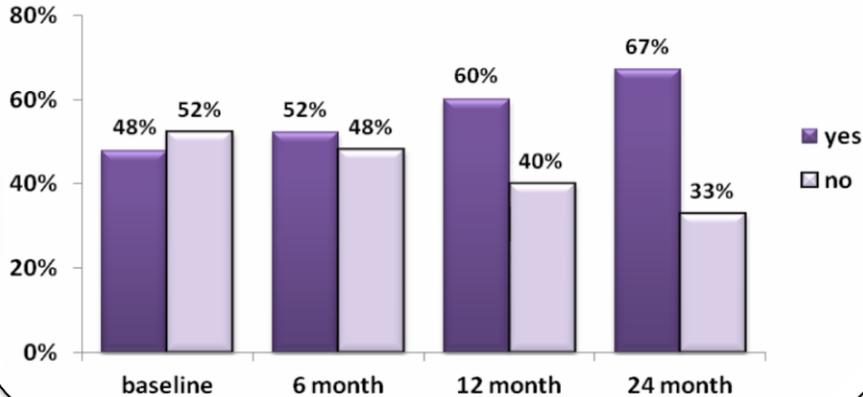

Did family or friends help you with things around the house?

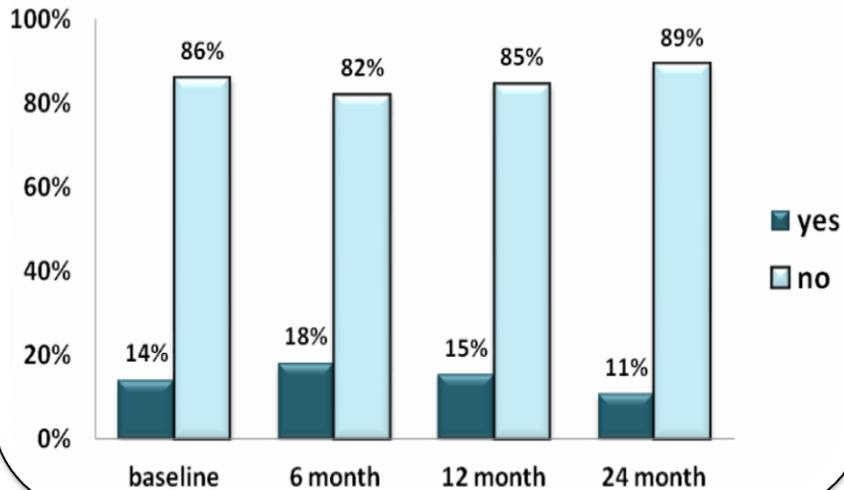

Average number of areas of choice and control*

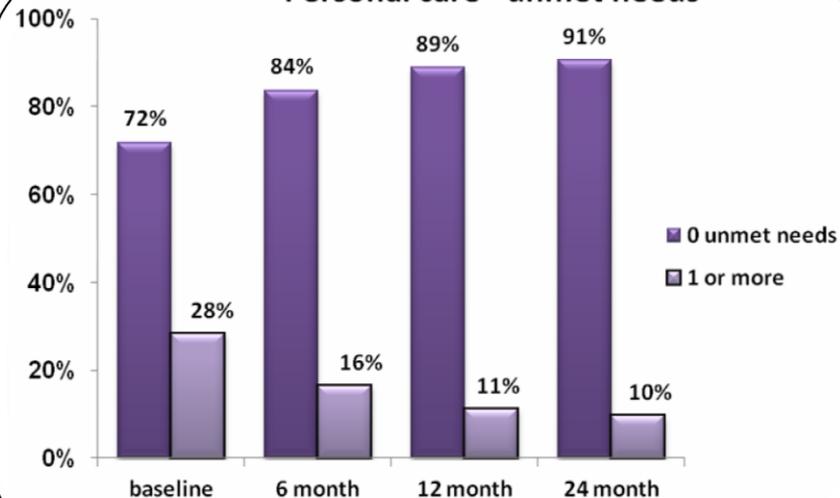

Community integration - Do you do fun things in the community?*

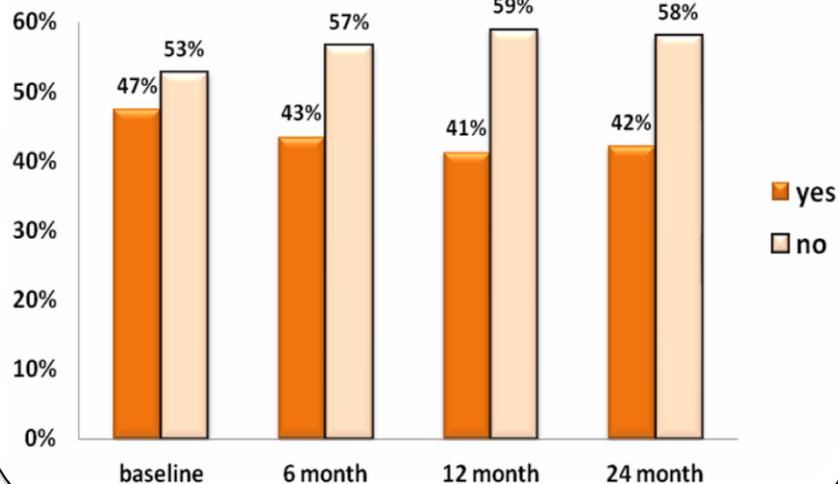

Healthcare unmet need

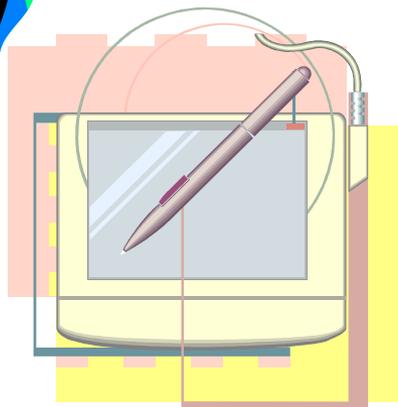

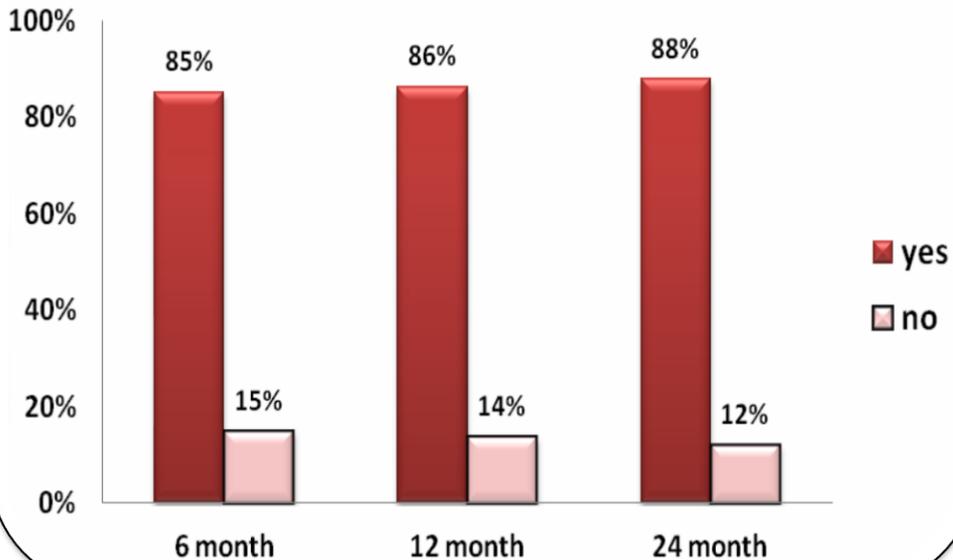

Personal care - unmet needs*

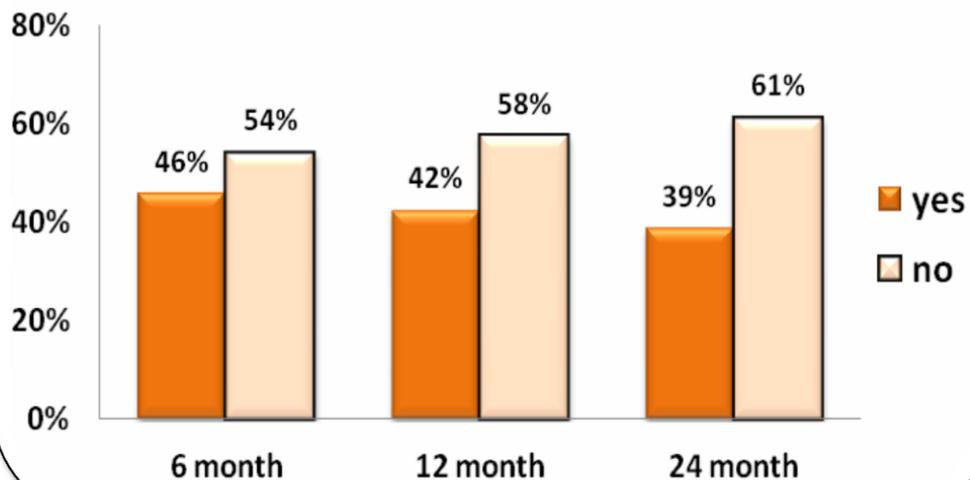

Depressive symptoms

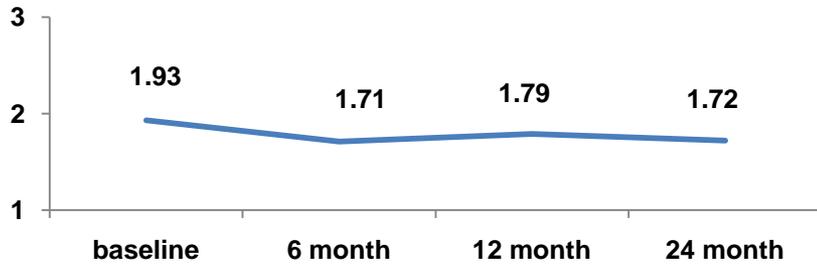

Do you have any assistive technology (AT)?

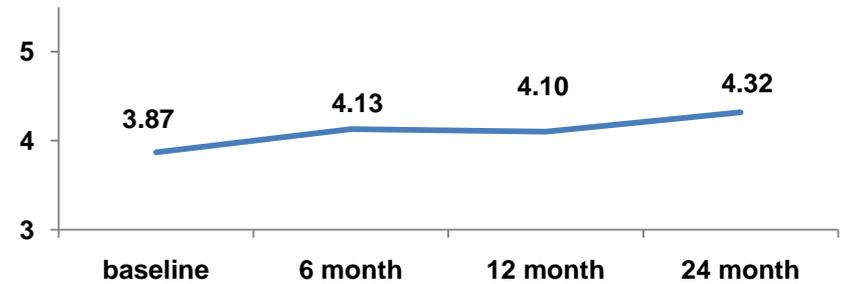

Do you need any AT that you do not have?

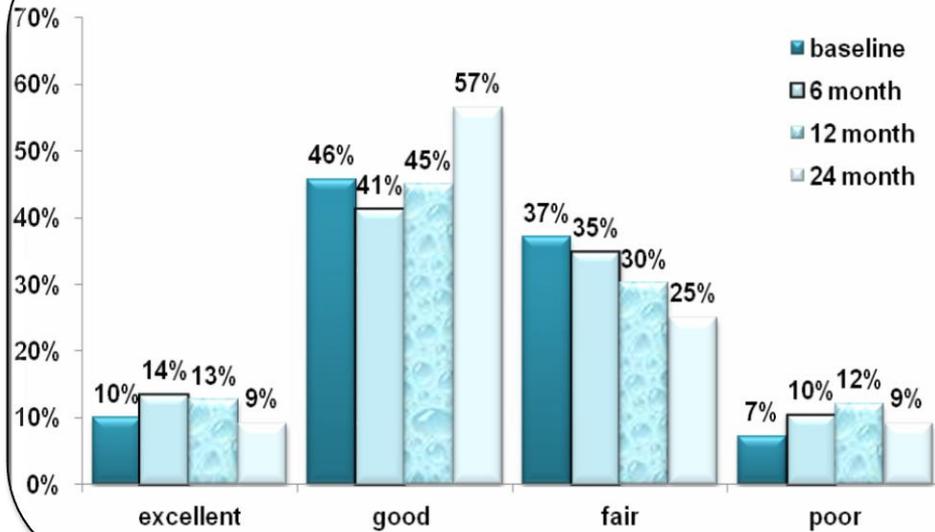

Activities of Daily Living score
 Range 0-6; 0=can do all ADLs independently;
 6=need assistance with all

Instrumental Activities of Daily Living score
 Range 0-7; 0=can do all IADLs independently;
 7= need assistance with all

Rate your overall health*

QoL Dashboard

- Shared quarterly with
 - MFP program staff & CMS
 - state agency staff & legislature members
 - community stakeholders
- Effective tool for broad dissemination of regular data updates
- Facilitates ongoing program analysis for quality improvement

Contact Information

Julie Robison, PhD

Associate Professor

Center on Aging, University of CT Health Center

jrobison@uchc.edu

860 679-4278

Martha Porter, Irene Reed, Noreen Shugrue

Center on Aging, University of CT Health Center

Dawn Lambert

CT Dept. of Social Services, Medical Care Admin.

Center on Aging

UCONN
HEALTH CENTER