STATE VICTIM ADVOCATE APPLAUDS PASSAGE OF BILL TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS AND PRIVACY OF CRIME VICTIMS.

(Hartford, CT) --- State Victim Advocate Garvin G. Ambrose today praised the courage of Governor Dannell P. Malloy, Legislative Leadership, and the entire General Assembly for final passage of SB1149, An Act Making Technical Changes To The Statute Concerning Access To Public Records.

"The protection of the rights and privacy of the families of homicide victims is a monumental step forward in our state" said Ambrose. "By expanding this important protection to all homicide victims, the Governor and General Assembly today reconfirmed their long standing dedication to the increased protection and inclusion of crime victims within our criminal justice system."

"As this state continues to move forward in protecting and enforcing the Constitutional and statutory rights of all crime victims, the Office of the Victim Advocate is encouraged by its inclusion on the task force created by this legislation."
