

YWCA WEEK WITHOUT VIOLENCE

In honor of domestic violence awareness month, all survivors and victims of sexual violence and their supporters the New Britain and Hartford Sexual Assault Crisis Services, a program of the YWCA of New Britain will be hosting the Break The Silence March.

Break the Silence Walk to End Violence in Hartford

Friday, October 15th; 4:30pm-6:30pm

Please join our walk to break the silence for all victims and survivors of violence. Walk will be from Park & Main ending at the Capitol for speeches on the steps.

Contact Tamara for more details (860) 225-4681 x 215 or tjemison@ywcaneubritain.org

October 15, 1995 marks the fifteenth anniversary death of Maria Elena Navarra-Kit-Kat, mother, sister, daughter, aunt and friend. Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault are crimes that affect our communities.

It's Time To Break The Silence!!!

New Britain and Hartford Sexual Assault Crisis Services
YWCA New Britain-22 Glen St. New Britain, CT
06051

24 Hour Confidential Hotline:

English: 1-888-999-5545. Spanish: 1-888-568-8332