

IPTM-Public Safety Institute
University of North Florida

Course Title: Homicide Investigations: A Practical Approach

Conducted At:

Date:

A.M.	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5
	Registration & Orientation	Case Study "Bado Case" and Processing of Homicide Scene From First Responder to Homicide Investigator	Changes to Body After Death *Decomposition *Skeletonization *Mummification *Adipocere	VICAP And Profiling	Sharp Force Injuries
	Introduction to Death Investigation		Identification Techniques		Pyramid Investigative Analysis (Through Prosecution)
	General Crime Scene Responsibilities			Gunshot Wounds
	(Team Approach)		Crime Scenes and Case Studies
P.M. Lunch
	Types of Homicides	Introduction to Forensic Science	Pyramid Investigative Analysis Through Investigative Stage and Time Line	Gunshot Wounds -Continued-	Organized/ Disorganized Personalities Case Studies
	Dual Approach to Homicides "People and Things"				Time of Death Estimation
		Case Study "Thomas Case"	Case Study "Ely Case"	Testing and Course Evaluation	