

Notice of Public Hearing

In April, the State Elections Enforcement Commission received a request for a Declaratory Ruling tentatively titled *Proposed Declaratory Ruling 2018-01: Political Activity of Organized Groups. A draft of the proposed ruling was issued for comment at the Commission's May 16, 2018 meeting. Comments were received through July 6, 2018.

The proposed Ruling and the Comments are posted here:

<http://seec.ct.gov/Portal/rulings/RulingsOpinions>

Notice is hereby given that, at its July 18, 2018 meeting, the Commission passed the following resolution setting forth further proceedings:

The Commission resolves to call a special meeting on Tuesday, July 31, 2018 at 1 p.m. at 20 Trinity Street, Fifth Floor, Garfield Room, Hartford, CT to hear public comments regarding a proposed declaratory ruling on the political activity of groups other than committees, entitled SEEC Proposed Declaratory Ruling 2018-01: Political Activity of Organized Groups. The Commission will also hear testimony on additional issues raised by the submitted comments.

The Commission further orders that notice of the special meeting be posted on the SEEC website; and notice be sent to all persons who were sent notice of the receipt of the petition; and notice be sent to all persons who submitted comments.