The State Elections Enforcement Commission will be previewing its new system for electronic registration of candidate, PAC and political party committees, and the filing of Campaign Finance Statement Reports.

WHO? Candidates, PAC and party Chairs and Campaign Treasurers are all invited to attend.

WHEN? January 3, 2008 @ 11:00 A.M.

WHERE? Legislative Office Building, Room 2D, Hartford, CT. For directions, please see the CGA website at <http://www.cga.ct.gov/asp/menu/drivingdirections.asp>

BY WHOM: The staff of the State Elections Enforcement Commission (SEEC)

WHY? The comprehensive Campaign Finance Reform legislation passed by the General Assembly in December 2005 and signed by the Honorable M. Jodi Rell, Governor, required the SEEC to design a new system for electronic campaign reporting. (Public Act 05-5 of the October 25, 2005 Special Session).

- ❑ eCRIS is easy to use
- ❑ eCRIS will help ensure that costly mistakes are avoided, and facilitate legal compliance
- ❑ eCRIS allows campaign finance data stored on campaign management software to be uploaded directly into the system filing
- ❑ eCRIS uses state-of-the art technology
- ❑ eCRIS is fast and reliable!

Join us for the demonstration of our new system!
You'll never go back to paper filings!

Please RSVP by contacting Ryan Preble at the SEEC
