BYSIEWICZ LAUNCHES NEW WEB FEATURE TO EASE THE VOTING PROCESS

SECRETARY OF THE STATE UNVEILS A NEW WEB FEATURE ALLOWING VOTERS TO CONFIRM THEIR VOTER REGISTRATION AND LOCATE POLLING PLACES

HARTFORD: Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz today launched a new web feature to ease the voting process by allowing voters to confirm their voter registration and locate polling places. While some towns have similar web features, this is the first statewide program of its kind in Connecticut.

“I am very excited about this new web feature,” said Secretary Bysiewicz, Connecticut’s chief elections official. “This program will make the voting process easier. Citizens can confirm their voter registration in advance, so no one will mistakenly miss out his or her opportunity to register and vote. Each day we are making strides to improve the electoral system in Connecticut and I think this is another step in the right direction.”

To access voter information, one must provide his or her legal name, town of residency, and birthday. Once the web feature confirms this information, a voter can see if he or she is registered to vote. The website will also provide the location of the individual’s polling place. Users must be aware that occasional special conditions can force changes in polling places. For the most up to date location, voters should check with their town offices and local registrar of voters.
