Entries will initially be judged by a panel comprised of a parent, and representatives from the DMV, contest sponsor(s), law enforcement, Connecticut high school students, a video communication specialist, the Chief State's Attorney's Office, The State Department of Transportation Office of Highway Safety and the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration. Up to a maximum of three (3) finalists will be recommended by the panel based on the following criteria:

- d. The DMV may edit the entries to fit the confines of the 25-second PSA in order to accommodate an introduction and ending. The DMV reserves the right to edit, crop or alter the PSA without notification to or approval by the entrant.
- e. On February 26, 2009, DMV will announce the first, second and third-place winners.
- f. The DMV will not be responsible for any server unavailability or any other computer or electronic malfunction relating to the online voting.
- g. The decisions of the DMV are final.
