

Upcoming Triple P Community Kickoff Events

The following events are FREE and open to the public—parents and children. Triple P CT programs are for parents who have children up to age 12. All events listed below take place in Hartford.

May 15 – 3:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

May 16 – 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Hartford Neighborhood Centers, Inc.

38 Lawrence St., Hartford, CT 06106

Contact—Jessenia Santos-Seda

860-251-6517

- Introduce Triple P and Triple P practitioners to neighborhood parents.

May 15 – 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Catholic Charities Asylum Hill Family Center

Grace Lutheran Church in Hartford

46 Woodland St., Hartford, CT 06105

Maureen Bish or Maria Zayas

860-244-9944

- Guests will consist of collaborating agencies such as staff and participants from Nurturing Families Network sites not housed within Family Centers, neighborhood hospital and clinic staff, and Asylum Hill families with young children.

May 15 – 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

The Village for Families and Children

331 Wethersfield Avenue, 105 Spring St. and 1680 Albany Ave, Hartford, CT

Contact—Sabina Griffith

860-236-4511 ext. 302

- Introduce Triple P and Triple P practitioners to parents. Parenting corners will be set up at each site and will include a display of Triple P materials. Parents will be able to view Triple P videos, and practitioners will answer questions.

May 15—3:00 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Sand Elementary School

1750 Main St., Hartford, CT 06102

Contact—Barbara Vita

860-695-5061

- Introduce Triple P and Triple P practitioners to parents. The last session of an 8-week Triple P discussion group was videotaped. The tape, which will be shown for the first time at this event, includes comments from parents who participated. A Triple P cake will be served.

Triple P launch events were held earlier this month at the following locations:

May 3

Southside Family Center

30 Pope Park Drive, Hartford, CT

Parker Memorial Community Center

2621 Main St., Hartford, CT

Contact—Tina Parchin, for more information about Triple P programs at these sites.

860-953-0113

May 7

El Centro Family Center

45 Wadsworth St., Hartford CT

Contact—Carmen Dosal

860-527-1124 ext. 256