

The Connecticut Family Support Network (CTFSN) exists to help families raising children with disabilities and special healthcare needs.

For Families of Adults with Disabilities & Transitioning Teens

Sponsored by CTFSN

Date: 4th Tuesday of month, next 11/27/18
Where: Autism Families CT
600 North Mountain Rd., Newington
(building is set back)
Time: *6:30 PM * note earlier start time

Speakers: Jill Larmett of Capital Workforce Partners and Myra Scott of Bureau of Rehabilitation Services

Access-T (Transition) presentation on how to navigate the system of services that assist individuals with disabilities in CT and raise awareness of the community supports available.

This presentation will also be available to call in.
Contact Pat for information on how to call in to hear the presentation.

Let Pat know you are coming so we have enough handouts:
pstavola@ctfsn.org

All are welcome to attend.

Transitioning Teens, Adult self-advocates & emerging self-advocates are always welcome. Please RSVP to Pat Stavola pstavola@ctfsn.org for questions.

Special Thank You to Autism Families CT for the space.