

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
Ansonia	Michael Schryver	mschryver@cityofansoniam.com	Yes				YES		No	More than $75/ton			YES		Waste to energy facility			1-Not a problem
Barkhamsted/New Hartford/Winsted (RRDD1)	Regional Refuse Disposal District #1	regionalrefuse1@sbcglobal.net	Yes	YES					Yes	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Waste to energy facility	1500	1000	2-Slight problem	The State and Town have found them in secluded locations.	Because mattress disposal costs have increased to unreasonable amounts, we have hired a private contractor to disassemble them on site. The fabric portion is disposed of with MSW - trash to energy and the metal is recycled with our light iron.
Berlin	James Horbal	jhorbal@town.berlin.ct.us	Yes				YES		No	0		YES			Waste to energy facility		500	2-Slight problem	Police enforcement
Bethel	Mike Flanagan	mjtf1952@hotmail.com	Yes	YES					Yes	More than $75/ton	YES				Waste to energy facility	?	?	1-Not a problem
Bristol	David Oakes	davidooakes@ci.bristol.ct.us	Yes		YES		YES	$25 permit required to access Transfer Station. Each residence get one free bulk pick-up, any additional bulk pick-ups cost $25/collection.	Yes	Amount not known	YES		$25 permit required to access Transfer Station.	Waste to energy facility	Not tracked, 2,000-3,000 approximately	Not tracked, 500-1,000 approximately	2-Slight problem	If placed at curb and no bulk collection has been scheduled, property owner notified via a warning letter and notification tags left at residence to notify tenants/owners.
Bloomfield	Santerria Moore	smoore@bloomfieldct.org	Yes			YES			No	Amount not known		YES		Bulky/solid waste landfill				2-Slight problem
Bolton	John Butrymovich	john.butrymovich@boltonct.org	Yes			YES			Yes	More than $75/ton	YES	YES		Recycling center	0	30	2-Slight problem
Brookfield	Ralph Tedesco	RTedesco@Brookfield.org	No															2-Slight problem	side of road and vacant lots.	The Brookfield does not have it's own transfer station. Our residents may use the New Milford Transfer Station for mattress and box spring disposal for a fee.
Burlington	Scott Tharau	stharau@yahoo.com	Yes	YES			YES	They are picked up during our bulk pic-up months that is quarterly.	No	Between $50-$75/ton	YES	YES		Resident are charged when they do not want to wait for the bulk pi-up months to drop them off at the transfer station.	Waste to energy facility	40	200	1-Not a problem
Canton	Robert Martin	rmartin@townofcantonct.org	No	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES			Bulky/solid waste landfill	75			2-Slight problem
Chaplin	Cale Audette	fireman9@charter.net	Yes	YES					No	$1-	YES			Recycling	Unknown			1-Not a

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
										$15/mattress						center			problem
Cheshire	Joseph Michelangelo	jmichelangelo@cheshirect.org	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES		YES	NOTE: Fee charged is based on incoming weight. Disposal cost is based on weight plus surcharge from hauler. (Additional cost is paid via YES.)	Bulky/solid waste landfill	100 per year (estimated)		2-Slight problem	Mattresses are occasionally left illegally on isolated roads - cost to Town is labor and equipment to pick up & dispose.
Colchester	Sal Tassone	townengineer@colchesterct.gov	Yes	YES					No	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	100 to 150		2-Slight problem	Town road crew usually collects 3 to 5 mattresses disposed illegally along roadside on an annual basis.
Cornwall	Stephen O'Neil	cwselectmen@optonline.net	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	fifty	unknown	2-Slight problem	Misc. bulky and electronic items occasionally thrown over back road embankments.	As the economy flounders and disposal costs to individuals rise I fully expect that illegal dumping will escalate. Rates should remain at the current amount or be lowered.
coventry ct	donna wrubel	dwrubel@coventryct.org	Yes			YES	The fee is part of the resident's annual fee whether they dispose of any mattresses or not they pay the annual bulk pickup fee. no separate fee just for mattresses.	No	Between $50-$75/ton	YES			The fee is noted above as an annual fee that includes the curbside bulk pickup whether they use the service or not.	Bulky/solid waste landfill		no idea All American Waste picks up. 100 ????	2-Slight problem	Find maybe half dozen a year that town crews must pickup	Place a deposit fee like batteries so the buyer needs to pay for recycling versus municipal disposal. DO NOT ADOPT THE PAINT METHODOLOGY.
Darien	Darren Oustafine	doustafine@darienct.gov	Yes		YES				No	Amount not known	YES		fee is for access into transfer station, not for individual mattress.	Waste to energy facility	Not tracked. I couldn't even guess.		1-Not a problem		Matress' are really not an issue for us.
Durham/Middlefield	Dom DelVecchio	suedel@snet.net	Yes	YES					No	More than $75/ton	YES			Recycling center	23 ton		2-Slight problem		Previously we were separating mattresses from bulky waste at a cost of $350/ton
EAST GRANBY	Diane Mucha	dianem@egtownhall.com	Yes		YES				No	Between $50-$75/ton			$50.00 permit fee per year to use the facility	Waste to energy facility	100		3-Somewhat of a problem
East Haddam	Shirley Dill	publicworks@easthaddam.org	Yes	YES					No	Amount not known	YES			Bulky/solid waste landfill	50		1-Not a problem
East Hampton	Keith Hayden	khayden@easthamptonct.org	Yes	YES					No	Amount not known	YES				100	0	1-Not a problem		Question #7 - AllWaste picks up our bulky and

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
																			brings it to their Portland facility.
East Hartford	Tim Bockus	tbockus@easthartfordct.gov	Yes	YES		YES			Yes	More than $75/ton	YES	YES			Recycling center	approx. 65 tns per year. not sure what that translates to # of units		2-Slight problem	dumped on public lands such as parks, cul-de-sacs, wooded areas, etc. that Town personnel must clean up and dispose of.
Ellington	George Fetko	gfetko@ellington-ct.gov	Yes				YES		Yes	Amount not known		YES			Bulky/solid waste landfill			2-Slight problem
ENFIELD	DAVID TUTTLE	dtuttle@enfield.org	Yes		YES		YES	When we pick them up at curb side it is with other bulky waste and with that said the charge is $100.	No	$15-$30/mattress		YES		We include the cost in our Budget in Disposal account.	Bulky/solid waste landfill	226 for last yr.	30 for last yr.	3-Somewhat of a problem	We have 3 isolated areas in Town that we have to pick up on a monthly basis. If its bag rubbish we gothrew to find a name and the Police will investigate.
Farmington	Scott G. Zenke	ZenkeS@Farmington-ct.org	Yes				YES	Curb Side Pickup by Hauler under a Bulk Waste Pickup, Resident must call in to schedule. Have worked cost into bulk waste fee to include a mattress.	Yes	$1-$15/mattress		YES		Worked into Yearly Waste Fee	Waste to energy facility		2010 approx 112 mattresses	2-Slight problem	Disposal cost now picked up by Town, Manpower to cleanup, Unsightly Roadside Trash.	We have advertised that it the store offers a free pickup and delivery, please use it.
Franklin	Richard Matters	franklin@99main.com	Yes	YES					No	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Recycling center	10		2-Slight problem	Not a problem if found. Picked up by Public Works and put in bulky waste dumpster.
Goshen	christine puglio	christinepuglio@sbcglobal.net	Yes				YES	hauler may charge homeowner/customer a fee-depends on agreement between hauler and homeowner-we pay if CRRRA charges us.	No	0		YES			Waste to energy facility	not known-crrra transfer station	brought to crrra transfer station	1-Not a problem		our residents do not have access to a transfer station. they have to hire a private contractor that is permitted by us to dump at the CRRRA transfer station in torrington. If CRRRA starts charging for mattresses then we will pay a separate fee. At the moment they are included in our MSW tonnage charge.
Granby	Sally Crapser	scrapser@granby-ct.gov	Yes	YES					Yes	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	470		3-Somewhat of a problem	We find mattresses on the side of the road ~5 times a year.
Greenwich	Patrick Collins	Patrick.Collins@greenwichct.org	Yes		YES				Yes	More than $75/ton		YES			Waste to energy facility	1,800 or more	0	1-Not a problem	Residents who don't pay for a hauling company, discard refuse into commercial containers and Town waste containers. If an address can be picked

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
																		out of the pile, we send the generator a nasty gram.
Groton	Stacey Ohlmann Leitch	sleitch@town.groton.ct.us	Yes	YES					Yes	Between $50-$75/ton	YES			Waste to energy facility	1040		2-Slight problem	Even though the Town provides low cost disposal at the Transfer Station, orphange piles are often found on cul-de-sacs and rural roads.	we cut the heavy bands that surround the mattress allowing it to broken up enough where it does not get hung up in the WTE feed hole.
Hamden	Pamela Roach	RoachFamily4@sbglobal.net	Yes		YES		YES		No	Amount not known		YES	YES	Bulky/solid waste landfill			2-Slight problem
Hartford	Marilynn Cruz-Aponte	Marilynn.Cruz-Aponte@hartford.gov	Yes		YES		YES		Yes	$15-$30/mattress			YES	Genral Fund Operating Expenses for Solid Waste collection	Bulky/solid waste landfill	Our tranfer center is still too new..only opened Sept 2010.	14,400 - 15,600 annually	5-Large problem	Hartford DPW, by ordinance, provides collection to 1-6 fa buildings. However, 7+ multi-dwelling, rooming houses, motels, drop mattresses curbside, in parks, vacant lots and DPW can not confirm sources. DPW must collect these.	Hartford is faced with a significant transient apartment population creating increased bulky/mattress disposal. Our population also uses refurbished mattresses that may not be kept by household as long a new purchases, resulting in greater disposal rates.
Harwinton	Tracy Mirsky	recycle@harwinton.us	Yes			YES		town sponsors 2 bulky waste drops at the town garage per year	No	$15-$30/mattress	YES		YES	Bulky/solid waste landfill	no tranfer station. Town garge collects approx. 30 /year	unknown. Hauler works with resident	3-Somewhat of a problem	bulky waste, including a stray mattress or more, is pcked up by the town crew along wooded, somewhat isolated roads, 2-3 times / year	Our town would like to see a mattress take back program in place by all appropriate retailers/ manufacturers, without undue expense placed upon the resident. I, as a Recycling Coordinator, love the fact that mattresses are being pulled apart and components recycled.
Killingly	Bruce Chimento	bchimento@killinglyct.org	Yes	YES		YES			No	More than $75/ton			YES	Recycling center			2-Slight problem	Material left on roadway or Town lands
Lebanon	Dennis Roberts	dennis.p.roberts@snet.net	Yes	YES					No	More than $75/ton	YES			Recycling center	125		2-Slight problem	Minimal illegal dumping
Ledyard	Steven Masalin	public.works.director@ledyardct.org	Yes	YES			YES		No	Amount not known	YES	YES		Bulky/solid waste landfill	100	100	2-Slight problem	Like other random occurences, mattresses show up on the roadside every now and then.
Lisbon	Thomas Sparkman	tsparkman@lisbonct.com	No														1-Not a problem
Litchfield	Naomi Boccio	boccio@townoflitchfield.org	Yes	YES		YES			No	$1-$15/mattress	YES	YES	YES	Bulky/solid waste landfill	ESTIMATED 25	ESTIMATED 10	2-Slight problem	On occation we will have to send the Public Works department out to pick them up from a dead end road or over a hill.
Madison	Fillmore	mcphersonf@madisonct.org	No														1-Not a

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
	McPherson																problem
Manchester	Brooks Parker	bparker@manchesterct.gov	Yes	YES			YES	$5 if it is brought to our transfer station, free at the curb.	No	0				Sanitation Fund is an enterprise fund, using commercial tipping fees to fund the operation.	Bulky/solid waste landfill	N/A	N/A	2-Slight problem	They show up at the curb in places that they should not belong.	We are unique in that we can dispose of them at no cost into our landfill. They are problematic when processing them with landfill equipment, so we would prefer there to be alternative options.
Mansfield	Virginia Walton	waltonvd@mansfieldct.org	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	10/wk or 520/year	0	1-Not a problem
Meriden	Robert Bass	rbass@ci.meriden.ct.us	Yes	YES					No					We charge a fee to enter the transfer station based on the size of vehicle. The costs allows you to dispose of all acceptable items. No seperation for mattresses.	Bulky/solid waste landfill	200		3-Somewhat of a problem	It requires staff from public works to collect them and then transfer them to our transfer station. This time erodes into other projects.
Middlebury	Daniel Norton	dannorton@middlebury-ct.org	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	30-40		4-Moderate problem	Cost of time & equipment to pick up illegally dumped materials and dispose of properly, not to mention lost dumping fees.
Middletown	Kim O'Rourke	kim.orourke@cityofmiddletown.com	Yes	YES		YES			Yes	Between $50-$75/ton	YES	YES	YES		Waste to energy facility	unknown	unknown	3-Somewhat of a problem	Always a problem	Our cost for mattress disposal is approximately $4000/year.
Milford	Kelly Hammill	KHammill@ci.milford.ct.us	Yes	YES	YES			Mattresses are accepted at Transfer Station and taken to the burn plant. Paid for under our monthly tonnage fee.	No	Amount not known	YES				Waste to energy facility	unknown		1-Not a problem		During evictions in our city, workers do not want to unload mattresses for health concerns and recent bed bug infestations.
Naugatuck	Sheila Bummer	sbaummer@naugatuck-ct.gov	Yes	YES					Yes	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Waste to energy facility	390		3-Somewhat of a problem	It cannot be traced when dumped so te town is forced to pick it up and dispose of it through YES. It is expensive to bring to our transfer station, or to dispose of when buying a new mattress at many places so of all the items we find illegally dumped it is one of the more	Mattresses tend to be one of the problem items for our landlords they are frequently left behind by tenents moving out and they have to dispose of them - and hopefully have some security deposit money available to pay for disposal.

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
																	frequent.
New Britain	Joyce Zukowski	jzukowski@newbritainct.gov	Yes	YES			YES		No	0	YES	YES		When resident delivers to Landfill, they are charged as part of cubic yard charge and the City pays as part of the disposal tip fees	Waste to energy facility	hundreds	hundreds	2-Slight problem
New Fairfield	Robert Rzasa	rrzasa@newfairfield.org	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	40		1-Not a problem		N/A
New London	William Watkins	wwatkins@ci.new-london.ct.us	Yes	YES					No	Between $50-$75/ton	YES	YES			Recycling center	300-500		2-Slight problem
Newington	Robert Hillman	rhillman@newingtonct.gov	Yes				YES		No	$15-$30/mattress			YES		Bulky/solid waste landfill		1150	3-Somewhat of a problem	Misuse of transfer station permits and abuse of the area are more probelmatic that illegal dumping.
North Haven	Ellen Giordano	giordano.ellen@town,north-haven.ct.us	Yes		YES		YES		No	More than $75/ton		YES			Bulky/solid waste landfill	350 est	100 est	2-Slight problem		The Town does a bulk pickup twice a year (April & September) mattresses are picked up at that time, otherwise brought to Transfer Station
North Stonington	Donald Hill	twn.nstonington@snet.net	Yes	YES					Yes	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Waste to energy facility	200		1-Not a problem
Norwalk	Alison McCrady	amccrady@norwalkct.org	Yes		YES			Citizens with a Resident Pass aka "beach sticker" may dispose of a mattress for no charge. If the mattress is part of a larger load, or if there is no Resident Pass, the charge is by weight or a flat fee of $20	No	More than $75/ton	YES	YES			Waste to energy facility	unknown	n/a	3-Somewhat of a problem	One section of the city, South Norwalk, has a problem with mattresses being left by tenants in high turnover apartments. They are left behind buildings, by commercial dumsters, etc	This is my fourth week as Waste Programs Manager for the City of Norwalk. I did the best with the information I had available.
Norwich	Joe Cooper	jcooper@cityofnorwich.org	Yes	YES			YES		No	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Recycling center	600	600	2-Slight problem	It causes blight, once residents see a mattress lying on the side of the road they start dumping other bulky items there.	I wish I had a dollar for everyone that I have seen on the sidewalks.
Old Lyme	Don Ruttty	selectmansoffice@oldlyme-ct.gov	Yes	YES					No	Between $50-$75/ton	YES				Waste to energy facility	200 - 250	0	1-Not a problem
Orange	Edwin Lieberman	elieberman@orange-ct.gov	Yes		YES				No	More than $75/ton		YES			Waste to energy facility	12		1-Not a problem
Oxford	wayne watt	wayne.watt@oxfordpublicworks.com	Yes					bring to recycle center	No	$15-			YES		Bulky/solid	12		2-Slight

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
								brought to f % g for disposal no charge		$30/mattress							waste landfill			problem
Portland	Richard Kelsey	rkelsey@portlandct.org	Yes	YES					No	$1-$15/mattress	YES						Recycling center	150		2-Slight problem	dumped at roadside Hwy crew must pick up
Prospect	Robert J. Chatfield	Town.of.Prospect@sbcglobal.net	Yes		YES				No	Between $50-$75/ton		YES					Recycling center	Unknown		2-Slight problem	Takes away from other work so P.W. can pick up litter.	Referring to #5, Between $50-$75/ton....mattresses/box springs are picked up with other waste.
Redding	Lawrece Kulowiec	lkulowiec@townofreddingct.org	Yes	YES		YES			No	Between $50-$75/ton	YES						Recycling center	Est: 125-150 per year	private haulers unknown number	2-Slight problem	Redding is a fairly affluent town and the dumping seen is usually in a remote area near the town borders so I theorize that most of the illegal dumping is from outside our town and not due to hardship of the residents within our border. That is only my opinion	Ref. Question 7, Our bulky/oversize solid waste goes to a DEP permitted VRF so in theory as much recyclables as possible are removed there.
Rocky Hill	Glenn Parent	gparent@ci.rocky-hill.ct.us	Yes		YES		YES		No	$1-$15/mattress		YES					Bulky/solid waste landfill	611		1-Not a problem
Roxbury	Barbara Henry	bhenry@roxburyct.com	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES						Bulky/solid waste landfill	40		2-Slight problem	Only once in a while we find a mattress on the side of the road.
Salisbury & Sharon	Brian Bartram	bbartram@salisburyct.us	Yes	YES					No	More than $75/ton	YES						Bulky/solid waste landfill	est 600	???	1-Not a problem	In general illegal dumping is not a problem, other than regular "litter" ie McDonalds bags, etc. Occasionally there have been tires & A/Cs that have been left roadside.
Seymour, CT	Dawn Valeski	dvaleski@seymourct.org	Yes		YES				No	Amount not known		YES					Waste to energy facility	350	0	2-Slight problem	People dump mattresses and boxsprings on the side of the road instead of bringing them to the transfer station
Somers	Todd Rolland	trolland@somersct.gov	Yes	YES					Yes	More than $75/ton	YES						Waste to energy facility			2-Slight problem	People dump them on the side of the road and we have to pick them up and dispose of them.	It would be nice if the manufacturers had a system of recycling the old ones.
Southbury	Tom Crowe	publicworks@southbury-ct.gov	Yes	YES					No	More than $75/ton	YES						Bulky/solid waste landfill	100	0	1-Not a problem	Not a significant problem.
Stafford	Jane LaMorte	wpca@stffordct.org	Yes	YES					No	More than $75/ton	YES	YES	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	583 in 2010		2-Slight problem	picked up by Town crew - if accompanied by garbage then

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
																	garbage is searched for possible owner
Stamford	Dan Colleluori	dcolleluori@ci.stamford.ct.us	Yes		YES				No	Amount not known			YES		Waste to energy facility	unknown		2-Slight problem
Stonington	John Phetteplace	jphetteplace@stonington-ct.gov	Yes	YES					No	Amount not known	YES			Waste to energy facility	200	0	1-Not a problem		We are only allowed to dispose of two mattresses per load at the waste- to energy facility. At peak times this can be a problem.
Suffield	Jack Muska	jmuska@suffieldtownhall.com	Yes	YES		YES			Yes	$15-$30/mattress	YES			Recycling center	300	25	2-Slight problem	It cost the town the manpower to clean up and we end up paying for the disposal.	Our mattresses are sent to a waste reduction facility.
Thomaston	Paul Pronovost	towngarage@snet.net	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES			Recycling center	20	0	2-Slight problem
Torrington	Jerry Rollett	JerryRollett@TorringtonCT.org	Yes				YES		No	More than $75/ton		YES	YES				2-Slight problem	Slight problem from neighboring communities dumping mattresses curbside in Torrington.	For Question #7, mattresses are collected with oversize materials such as furniture weekly curbside and disposed of at out hauler's (USA Hauling) facility on Lamson drive in Winsted.
Vernon	Peter Griffiths	pgriffiths@vernon-ct.gov	Yes	YES				Mattresses can be included in our paid curbside bulky pickup program.	No	More than $75/ton	YES		YES	Bulky/solid waste landfill	@ 325		2-Slight problem	dumped off in woods or dead end rds.	Would be nice to have a regional mattress processing facility in the Hartford area.
Voluntown	Roxanne Gray	rgray@voluntownct.org	Yes	YES					No	Amount not known	YES			Bulky/solid waste landfill	275		2-Slight problem
Wallingford	Doreen Zaback	towngovwallingford@sbcglobal.net	Yes	YES				Transfer station is operated by contractor. Contractor is responsible for disposing of all waste brought to transfer station.	Yes	Amount not known	YES			Current fee to dispose is $11.60 per mattress.	Bulky/solid waste landfill	unknown	0	1-Not a problem
Warren	Jack Travers	selectman@warrenct.org	No															1-Not a problem
Washington	Mark Lyon	mark.lyon@washingtonct.org	Yes	YES					Yes	$1-$15/mattress	YES			Waste to energy facility	100		2-Slight problem	Occasionally back roadside dumping. No cost to use transfer station, and accepting bulky waste for small fee minimizes problem. The out of the way places that they are disposed in, usually involve hills or stream beds. The highway crew is required to fish

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
																			them out.
Waterbury	Louis Spina	lspina@waterburyct.org	Yes	YES	YES		YES	residents can drop mattresses off at transfer station or have a special pickup without a fee. Commercial haulers pay a fee at transfer station.	No	$1-$15/mattress			YES	YES covers non paying residents. Haulers pay for thier disposal.	Recycling center	2500	5000	3-Somewhat of a problem	when mattresses are illegally dumped on our streets, we have to clean and pay disposal regardless of thier origin.
Waterford	Ronald Cusano	rcusano@waterfordct.org	Yes	YES		YES			No	More than $75/ton	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	1300	30	1-Not a problem
Watertown	Roy Cavanaugh	cavanaugh@watertownct.org	Yes	YES					Yes	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	200	unknown - private hauler	2-Slight problem
West Hartford, CT	David Gabriele	dave@westhartford.org	Yes			YES			No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Waste to energy facility		1200	2-Slight problem
West Haven	Beth Sabo	Beth_Sabo@cityof westhaven.com	Yes			YES			No	Amount not known		YES		Sold Waste is a line item in our municipal budget	Waste to energy facility		100	2-Slight problem	It is usually from other towns or at times when bulk trash is not picked up. The city has bulk trash pick up once a month(second week of the month)
Westport	Stephen J. Edwards	sedwards@westportct.gov	Yes		YES				No	0		YES			Waste to energy facility	20		1-Not a problem
Wilton	Jennifer Fascitelli	Jennifer.fascitelli@wiltonct.org	Yes	YES					No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Recycling center	200	0	1-Not a problem
Windham	Matthew Vertefeuille	mvertefeuille@windhamct.com	Yes	YES				once per year bulky waste curbside pick up free	No	$1-$15/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill	150	50	3-Somewhat of a problem	found curbside, in ally's and on back roads
Windsor Locks	Amy Whalen	amy@wlocks.com	Yes			YES			No	$15-$30/mattress	YES				Bulky/solid waste landfill		100	4-Moderate problem	Residents have reported mattresses dumped in front of homes and we have found a few dumped along the roadways. Mattresses show up on vacant lots, municipal areas (parks) and next to Salvation Army/Goodwill collection areas.	Residents are not happy about paying a separate fee for the disposal of mattresses & boxsprings.
Woodbridge	Cynthia Pecca	cpecca@ci.woodbridge.ct.us	Yes		YES				No	Amount not known			YES		Waste to energy facility	20	10	1-Not a problem
Woodbury	Margaret Warner	pworks@charterinternet.com	Yes	YES					No	0				N/A at this time...currently use F&G as our bulky waste hauler and does not	Bulky/solid waste landfill			4-Moderate problem	Moderate problem due to Transfer Station hours and days of operation change due to budgetary issues. The transfer station is

City/Town:	Your name:	Email Address:	Does your municipality provide for disposal of mattresses? If no, please proceed to question #9	How does your municipality provide for mattress disposal? Check all that apply. (TS= Transfer Station)				Does your municipality separate mattresses out of the bulky waste or oversized solid waste stream	How much does it cost your municipality to dispose of mattresses?	How does your municipality cover the cost for mattress disposal? Check all that apply.				Where does your municipality send disposed mattresses? Check one that applies.	Give an estimate, or known number, of mattresses disposed every year at:		On a scale of 1 to 5, please state if illegal dumping of mattresses is a problem in your municipality.	How is illegal dumping a problem in your municipality?	Please state any other comments about mattress disposal in your municipality. (Optional)
				Accepted at municipal TS or recycling center		Picked up at curbside by municipal or commercial hauler				Other method (please specify)	Resident is charged a fee	Property taxes	Tax base		Other method	Transfer station				Curbside
				For a fee	Without a fee	For a fee	Without a fee
													charge town AT THIS TIME per contract. This may change.						closed an additional day which causes illegal dumping on that particular day.	