

Boaters Beware

Use caution when near mute swan nesting territories from late March into June. Swans will aggressively defend their territory and young. With a wingspan that can reach 6 feet long, swans are capable of causing serious injury and possibly tipping over small watercraft.

To protect yourself and swans:

- Stay away from nests.
- Give swans a wide berth.
- Always wear a life jacket.

Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection
Bureau of Natural Resources
Wildlife Division
www.ct.gov/deep/wildlife
860-424-3011