

DMHAS INITIATIVE

CO-OCCURRING DISORDERS

The DMHAS co-occurring disorders initiative aims to strengthen substance use and mental health treatment and recovery skills, regardless of setting, to foster holistic, whole person approaches to services across the state of Connecticut.

August 7th	9:00am - 4:00pm	Whole Person Approaches to Co-occurring Substance Use & Mental Health Disorders Charles Atkins, MD
August 12th	9:00am - 4:00pm	Holistic Treatment for Co-occurring Disorders Mary Ryan Woods, MSHS, BC-RN, LADC
August 28th	9:00am - 4:00pm	Increasing Your Creativity to Engage and Retain Clients with a Dual Diagnosis Thomas M. Greaney, M.Ed., LADC, CCDP
Sept. 9th	9:00am - 4:00pm	Co-occurring Disorders: The Tremendous Importance of Peer Supports Sarah Howroyd, LMSW
Sept. 18th & 23rd	9:00am - 4:00pm	2 day training - Cognitive, Dialectical & Transdiagnostic Therapies: SAMHSA's Best Practices for Co-occurring Disorders Jaak Rakfeldt, PhD, LCSW

Follow-up consultation with Eileen M. Russo, MA, LADC on:
August 19th, September 13th, October 15th, November 12th
More information to follow.

Free to DMHAS employees and DMHAS funded private non-profits
Register at www.womensconsortium.org
Apply code at checkout: 2019DMHASCDI-BG2