The American Can Company stipulates and the Ethics Commission finds that:

1. As a registered lobbyist, the American Can Company, under the provisions of section 1-96, Connecticut General Statutes, was obligated to file with the State Ethics Commission no later than April 10, 1979, its financial report concerning lobbying activities during the month of March, 1979. In violation of this section the American Can Company filed on April 17, 1979 its March, 1979, financial report concerning lobbying activities. The American Can Company's late filing of this report was not willful.

2. The American Can Company waives any right it may have to a hearing to determine whether in April, 1979, it violated section 1-96, Connecticut General Statutes, and agrees with the State Ethics Commission to an informal disposition of this matter as permitted under subsection 4-177(d), Connecticut General Statutes.

WHEREFORE, the State Ethics Commission orders the American Can Company to pay a civil penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00) for said violation.
