Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes §4-177(c), the State Ethics Commission and the Respondent, Representative Edward C. Krawiecki, agree to settle this matter in the manner described below:

1. The Commission finds that the Respondent violated the Code of Ethics for Public Officials as alleged in the attached Complaint dated July 9, 1993.

3. The Respondent and the Commission waive any rights they may have under Conn. Gen. Stat. §§1-82, 1-82a, 1-87, 1-88 and 1-80, including the right to a hearing or appeal in this case, and the Respondent agrees with the Commission to an informal disposition of this matter as authorized by Conn. COMPLAINT

1. Edward C. Krawiecki, Jr. (hereinafter referred to as the Respondent) was a member of the General Assembly during April and May, 1993. Consequently, the Respondent was a public official as defined in Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-79(k) and therefore, subject to the provisions of the Code of Ethics for Public Officials, Chapter 10, Part I, Connecticut General Statutes.

2. The Respondent has a private law practice located in Bristol, Ct.

3. On or about April 19, 1993, the Respondent was put on notice of a potential claim for malpractice by a former client.

4. Through its attorney, in the notice described in paragraph 3, the former client stated its intent to file a malpractice claim for monetary damages against the Respondent. Under Connecticut law, said claim had a maximum sixth year statute of limitation.

5. An amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 7198 was adopted in the Senate on April 28, 1993; The House of Representatives adopted the amendment to the Bill on May 3, 1993.

6. The amendment described in paragraph 5 required a cause of action against an attorney for malpractice to be brought no later than five years from the date of the act or omission.

7. More than five years but less than six years had elapsed from the date of the act or omission which the former client alleged was the basis for the malpractice claim described in paragraph 4.

8. The effective date for the amendment described in paragraph 5 was the date of passage of the Bill. The Respondent had reason to believe or expect that this would have prevented the former client from filing his malpractice suit against the Respondent.
9. In his capacity as a member of the General Assembly and minority leader of the House of Representatives, the Respondent had asked an attorney in the office of the House Republicans to research and draft the amendment described in paragraphs 5 and 6.

10. The Respondent's action described in paragraph 9 was official activity which was in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in violation of Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-85.

11. The Respondent had also contacted one or more public officials to help ensure passage of the amendment described in paragraph 5.

12. The conduct described in paragraph 11 was a use of office in violation of Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-84(c).
