PRESS RELEASE

On January 29, 1999, Ethics Commission Principal Attorney Brenda M. Bergeron filed Complaints against Leo Provost, an employee of H.H. Ellis Technical School, and his son Jason Provost. The Complaint against Leo Provost alleges that he used his state position for his son’s financial gain, in violation of the Code of Ethics for Public Officials, Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-79 et seq., by approaching the business manager at the school and asking to have the school build a house for Jason at a rate well below fair market value. The Complaint against Jason Provost alleges that he, the son of a state employee, entered into the construction contract with the school without going through the open and public process required by the Code of Ethics.

On April 9, 1999, the Ethics Commission and the Respondents settled this matter by entering into a Stipulation and Order which requires the Respondents to pay a civil penalty of $1500 each, for a total civil penalty of $3000, and also requires the Respondent Jason Provost to pay $6000 to the Department of Education as reimbursement for the construction work performed by the students and staff of H.H. Ellis Technical School.

Copies of the Complaint and Order are attached.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes §4-177(c), the State Ethics Commission and the Respondents agree to settle this matter in the matter described below:

2. The Respondents state that they relied on advice given to them by the Central Office of the state Vocational-Technical School System in proceeding on the construction of the house in question.

3. The Respondents waive any right they may have under Conn. Gen. Stat. §§1-82, 1-82a, 1-87 and 1-80, including any right to a hearing or appeal in this case, and agree with the Commission to an informal disposition of this matter as authorized by Conn. Gen. Stat. §4-177(c).

WHEREFORE, the State Ethics Commission enters and the Respondents agree to the following order in lieu of any other action regarding this matter:

1. The Respondent Jason Provost agrees to pay $6000.00 to the State of Connecticut Department of Education Vocational-Technical School System to compensate for the construction of the house. These payments will be made to the Department of Education in accordance with a schedule set up by that Department and approved by the Ethics Commission.

2. The Respondents also agree to a civil penalty of $1500.00 each to the State Ethics Commission, for a total civil penalty in this matter of $3000.00. These payments will be made in monthly installments of $500.00 from each Respondent. The first payments are to be made within 30 days of the signing of this Stipulation and Order.

DOCKET NUMBER 99-2
IN THE MATTER OF A COMPLAINT AGAINST JASON PROVOST

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION
20 TRINITY STREET
HARTFORD, CT 06106
JANUARY 29, 1999

COMPLAINT

1. At all times relevant herein, the Respondent was the son of a state employee, as that term is used in the Code of Ethics for Public Officials, Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-79 et seq.

2. Connecticut General Statutes §1-84(i) states in part that no member of a state employee’s immediate family shall enter into a contract with the state valued at one hundred dollars or more unless the contract has been awarded through an open and public process, including prior public offer and subsequent public disclosure of all proposals considered and the contract awarded.

3. As used in Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-84(i), the term “immediate family” includes the relationship of father and son.

4. On or about June 6, 1997, the Respondent and representatives of the H.H. Ellis Technical School signed a contract obligating the school to provide the carpentry labor to build a two story Cape home with a two-car garage for the cost of $7200.

5. The application submitted by the Respondent included a representation by him that he was not an immediate family member of a state employee.

6. This contract was not awarded through an open and public process.

7. The Respondent’s entering into this contract without going through an open and public process violated Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-84(i).
