DOCKET NUMBER 2000-18

IN THE MATTER OF A

COMPLAINT AGAINST

DAVID S. FEARON

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION

20 TRINITY STREET

HARTFORD, CT 06106

APRIL 7, 2000

COMPLAINT

1. At all times relevant herein, David S. Fearon was a professor in the Management and Organization Department of the School of Business at Central Connecticut State University.

2. In 1997, as part of his state duties, Professor Fearon was assigned to the ongoing role of Professor in Residence at the Hospital for Special Care in New Britain, Connecticut.

3. In 1998 and 1999, at the same time that it was providing bonuses to its own staff, the Hospital for Special Care paid Professor Fearon bonuses totaling $6000.

4. Professor Fearon's acceptance of the bonuses from a private entity for work performed in his state capacity was a use of his state position for financial gain in violation of Connecticut General Statutes §1-84(c).
