COMPLAINT

1. In or about February, 2004, the Respondent, Albemarle Equities, LLC, was a lobbyist registrant in Connecticut, pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-91 et seq.

2. In or about February, 2004, Lisa Musumeci was the Vice-Chairperson of the State Properties Review Board, and a public official as defined in Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-79(k) and §1-91(p).

3. In or about February, 2004, the Respondent, through its principal member, was renting a three-bedroom condominium at Bear Creek near Stratton Mountain, Vermont that the principal member had rented for the season from a longtime friend in a less-than-arm’s length transaction.

4. On or about February 26th-27th, 2004, the Respondent permitted Ms. Musumeci and her husband to stay at the Vermont condominium without charge while the Respondent’s principal member, his wife, and another couple were also staying at the condominium.

5. The fair market value of renting a similar condominium at that time was approximately $500.00 per night, making the fair market value of the benefit donated by the Respondent, through its principal member, approximately $166.66 per night.

6. Pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-97(a), no registrant or anyone acting on behalf of a registrant shall knowingly give a gift, as defined in subsection (g) of section 1-91, to any public official or a member of any such person's immediate family.

7. Regulations of Conn. State Agencies §1-92-54(c) requires that in order to avoid attribution of an item as directly and personally received, the recipient must either return the item or reimburse the donor within thirty days.
8. Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-91(g)(16) exempts from the definition of gift anything having a value of not more than ten dollars, provided the aggregate value of all things provided by a donor to a recipient under this subdivision in any calendar year shall not exceed fifty dollars.

9. Each donation by a registrant or someone acting on behalf of a registrant of anything of value in excess of ten dollars without timely reimbursement constitutes a gift within the meaning of Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-97(a).

STIPULATION AND ORDER

Pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. §4-177(c), the State Ethics Commission ("Commission") and the Respondent, Albemarle Equities, LLC (hereinafter "the Respondent"), agree to settle this matter in the manner described below:

1. WHEREAS, on May 10, 2005, the Commission filed a Complaint against the Respondent alleging that it violated the Code of Ethics for Lobbyists, Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-91 et seq.

2. WHEREAS, the Commission finds that the Respondent violated the Code of Ethics for Lobbyists, Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-91 et seq. as alleged in the Complaint.

3. WHEREAS, the Respondent states that its principal member, Philip Schonberger, was a longtime friend of the gift recipient, and the gift recipient was a longtime friend of the condominium owner, Richard Suisman. The Respondent further states that its principal member was aware that the gift recipient had stayed at said condominium as a guest of the condominium’s owner, by virtue of their mutual friendship, on other occasions over the course of many years, well before the Respondent paid to rent the condominium for the 2003-2004 season. The Respondent is entering into this Stipulation for the sole purposes of avoiding the time and expense of litigation and of resolving the controversy over this subject.
