STIPULATION AND ORDER

2. The Respondent denies any intentional violation of the Code of Ethics for Public Officials, and he further states that he had never been advised of the requirements of §1-84b(b) by the DEP prior to or at the time of his exit interview.

3. The Respondent waives any rights he may have under Connecticut General Statutes §§1-80, 1-82, 1-82a and 1-87 including the right to a hearing or appeal on this case and agrees with the Commission to an informal disposition of this matter as authorized by Connecticut General Statutes §4-177(c).

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes §4-177(c), the State Ethics Commission and the Respondent John Eichler agree to settle this matter in the manner described below:

1. The Ethics Commission orders, and the Respondent agrees to pay to the Commission, a civil penalty of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00). Payment will be made in eight monthly increments of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) due on the first of every month starting July 1, 1998, and continuing until the amount is paid in full.
