STATE ETHICS COMMISSION

PRESS RELEASE

On June 5, 1998, Ethics Commission Attorney Catherine Wassel-Nasto filed a complaint (Docket Number 98-8) against Louis Martin, Executive Director of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities ("CHRO"). The complaint alleged that Mr. Martin violated the provisions of Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-84(c) by conducting a private human rights training consulting business known as "Albion Associates" for the benefit of which he utilized State time, travel, personnel and/or other resources. The complaint also alleged that Mr. Martin’s conduct of “Albion Associates” impaired his independence of judgment as to his official duties in violation of Conn. Gen. Stat. §1-84(b). Records obtained throughout the investigation into these allegations indicated that: 1) Albion Associates provided paid consulting services to “Carrier Corporation,” a subsidiary company of United Technologies Corporation (“UTC”), at a time during which UTC had active cases pending before the CHRO; 2) Mr. Martin used the fact of his official position in marketing materials for Albion Associates; and, 3) CHRO employees over whom Mr. Martin had direct supervisory responsibility and whose career advancement was subject to his control were paid to do consulting work on behalf of Albion Associates.

On the basis of the above-referenced counts, on December 4, 1998, the Ethics Commission and Mr. Martin settled this matter by entering into a Stipulation and Order. Under the settlement, the Ethics Commission found that Mr. Martin violated the Code of Ethics as alleged in its complaint, and Mr. Martin agreed to pay a civil penalty of $3,000.00.

Copies of the Complaint and the Stipulation and Order are attached.
