FOI 101
A Crash Course in the FOI Act

Present by
Tracie C. Brown
Principal Attorney
Freedom of Information Commission
James Madison (1751–1836)
“A popular Government without popular information, or the means of acquiring it, is but a Prologue to a Farce or a Tragedy; or perhaps both.... A people who mean to be their own Governor, must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives.”
ORDER OF PRESENTATION

THE CONNECTICUT FOI ACT: APPLICABILITY

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

IN BROAD TERMS
THE FOI COMMISSION

- Comprised of nine members appointed to staggered terms; five appointed by Governor, four appointed by legislature leadership

- No more than five members can be members of the same political party
THE FOI COMMISSION

- Mediate, hear and decide citizen complaints
- Issue declaratory rulings
- Public education and training of the public and public officials
- Makes recommendations to the legislature
- FOI Commission staff represents the Commission in court
THE FOI COMMISSION

- Order the disclosure of public records
- Declare null and void votes taken at meetings held in violation of the FOI Act
- Fine the responsible public officials for violation, without reasonable grounds, of the FOI Act
- Fine complainants who bring FOI complaints frivolously, without reasonable grounds and solely for the purpose of harassment
The Process

Filing a Complaint

- Clearly written letter of complaint (appeal) to the Commission (enclose the request letter and any other documents relevant to the request).

- File complaint with FOI Commission within 30 days after denial of any right conferred by the FOI Act to avoid loss of subject matter jurisdiction (Commission’s authority to hear the complaint).
The Ombudsman Program

- Form of mediation
- Attempt to reach amicable resolution of complaints
- Discussions are confidential, no carryover to hearing if negotiations are not successful
- Ombudsman may not discuss case with Hearing Officer
- Settlements can include: narrowing of issues, partial release of requested records or release of redacted records, written admission of FOI violation, scheduling of FOI workshops by Commission staff
Contested case hearings are 90 minutes. Non–formal proceeding, however, preparation is important. No lawyer required. Testimony, exhibits and arguments are presented. Recommendations, called hearing officer reports, submitted to all parties and the Commission. Commission makes final decision at a meeting.
The Process

The Commission Meeting

- 10 minutes of legal argument permitted to each party.
- Time should be used to advocate for or against the hearing officer’s report.
- No testimony or fact-finding permitted.
- Commission may accept the hearing officer’s report, reject it, or change it.
The Public Meetings Provisions

"Everyone here? Good. Meeting topic: Setting world record for shortest meeting. All in favor say aye. Ayes have it. Meeting over."
What is a PUBLIC MEETING?

Emergency Meeting

LACK OF PLANNING ON YOUR PART DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN EMERGENCY ON MY PART.
Emergency = Unpredictable & Unavoidable
The Public Records Provisions
What is a public record?

See definitions at:

Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 1-210(a)

and

Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 1-212(a)
PUBLIC RECORDS
GENERAL RULES

- Right to inspect records promptly during regular office or business hours
- Right to receive a copy promptly upon request
- No duty to conduct research
- No duty to create records that do not already exist
- Electronic scanning of records now recognized by statute
PUBLIC RECORDS PROMPTNESS

- Means “without undue delay”
- Take into account the agency’s workload
- Take into account the requester’s time requirements
- Take into account size and difficulty of the request
Denial of the right to inspect or copy records shall be made within four business days of a request.

Failure to comply with a request to inspect or copy public records within the applicable number of business days shall be deemed to be a denial from which an appeal can be taken.

Best practice: at minimum, agency should acknowledge request within four business days.

Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 1-206(a)
COST OF COPIES

• State Agencies – no more than 25 cents per page
• All other public agencies – no more than 50 cents per page
• If any copy requires a transcription, or if any person applies for a transcription of a public record, the fee for such transcription shall not exceed the cost thereof to the public agency

Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 1-212(a)(1) and (2)
Computer-Stored Public Records

- Any agency which maintains records in a computer storage system must provide a copy of any nonexempt data, on paper, disk, tape or any other electronic storage device or medium requested by the person, if the agency can reasonably make such copy or have such copy made.

- Except as otherwise provided by state statute, the cost for providing a copy of such data shall be in accordance with the provisions of C.G.S. sec. 1-212.

Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 1-211
Exemptions are permissive or discretionary – i.e., an agency need not invoke them.

Exemptions are listed and described in C.G.S. sec. 1-210(b) of the FOI Act.
PUBLIC RECORDS
EXCEPTIONS, EXEMPTIONS & EXCLUSIONS

- Exclusions are mandatory
- They’re listed and described in other sections of the FOI Act (e.g., C.G.S. sec.1-217 which excludes residential addresses of certain public safety officials)
Frequently Claimed Exemptions

- Invasion of privacy [1-210(b)(2), G.S.]
- Law Enforcement records [1-210(b)(3), G.S.]
- Test Questions [1-210(b)(6), G.S.]
- Privileged communications [1-210(b)(10), G.S.]
- DOC & safety risk [1-210(b)(18), G.S.]
- DESPP & Safety Risk [1-210(b)(19), G.S.]

Search v. Research

- Public agencies are required to search
- Public agencies are not required to perform research

BUT WHAT’S THE DIFFERENCE?
Wildin v. FOIC
56 Conn.App.683(Conn.App.2000)

“A record request that is simply burdensome does not make that request one requiring research.” Id. at 687.
